Un-American Activities Probe Suspended for Rest of Year

20-Year Brake Put On Drivers

Court Revokes Youths' Permits

Two young Richland countians who figured in fatal traffic accidents were barred today from driving cars for 20 years. A woman driver's license was revoked for 15 years.

The stiff penalties were imposed by Common Pleas Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch who placed the three defendants on probation for five years.

Revoked for 20 years were the licenses of James F. Stumpf, 19, of Galion, R. D. 1, and James F. Gamble, 18, of Shelby. The license of Mrs. Stella Bond, of Mansfield, R. D. 1, was revoked for 15 years. Stumpf and Gamble pleaded guilty to second-degree manslaughter charges.

The revocations are a part of the probation terms set up by the court. In each of the three cases the defendants were ordered to pay damages if their insurance companies are unable to reach a settlement. The Gamble case has been settled.

FATALLY INJURED

Stumpf was the driver of a car that collided with one driven by Walter John Bigler, 58, of Shelby, R. D. 2, last May 16. Bigler died as a result of injuries suffered in the collision, which occurred at Greter's Lake and Springmill roads.

Gamble pleaded guilty yesterday to a second-degree manslaughter charge as the result of the death of Wilford Hipp, Mansfield, last September on the Ashland hill. He was put on probation for five years.

Mrs. Bond, also indicted for manslaughter, was the driver of a car which figured in a fatal crash Sept. 26 at Bowman street and State Route 96 north of Mansfield. Edward Lester Kindinger, Mansfield, died as a result of the accident.

Jesse Curd, 224 North Diamond street, was placed on probation for five years, on his plea of guilty to carrying concealed weapons. He was arrested last May 13 when police discovered he was carrying a .32 caliber Spanish-make automatic pistol.

One of two brothers in court yesterday afternoon was sentenced to one to seven years in the Ohio State penitentiary on his plea of guilty to charges of grand larceny.

He is Richard Dix Lookabaugh, of 201 East Third street, who was charged in the theft of four radios, valued at $55.60 from the Montgomery Ward company here. He had a previous record.

WINS PROBATION

His brother, Gaylord R. Lookabaugh of 260½ North Mulberry street, who was charged with receiving stolen property in the same case, was placed on probation for five years on his plea of guilty. He did not have a previous record.

In another case yesterday, Hubert Hayes of Crestline, pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent and was put on probation for five years.

Mrs. Henrietta Smith of 65 East Sixth street, who pleaded guilty to keeping a house of prostitution was placed on probation for five years. The case went to common pleas court since she previously was convicted on a similar charge in municipal court.

Court Acquits Young Mother

SALISBURY, Md. — (UP) — Mary Ellen Truitt, 19, who admitted killing her husband because she "couldn't take it any more," was reunited with her two-year-old daughter today after five months in jail.

The blonde housewife was acquitted of a murder charge yesterday after telling a jury of seven men and five women that she was "happier in jail" than living with her husband.

"It was his life or mine," Mrs. Truitt testified. "He had beaten me for three years." She said she shot her husband on June 10 when, in a drunken stupor, he struck their daughter, Dolores, and killed the child's kitten. She said he vowed "he was going to shoot me after the baby went to sleep."

'Samaritans' Render Aid, Steal Cash

NEW YORK —(AP)— Florence Crispadore, 74, was limping along a dark Manhattan street last night on crutches when one of them broke.

Two men approached and offered to get her a new pair. They returned with the crutches.

Thanking them gratefully, the elderly woman reached into her pocketbook for a dollar. Then, police said, the pair snatched her purse containing $87 and fled.

A policeman at a nearby corner arrested the two men. They were charged with grand larceny.

Delinquents Get Warning From Board

15 Registrants Face Prison Sentences

The Richland county draft board today listed 15 registrants as delinquents and warned that they will be prosecuted if they fail to report to the board immediately.

One of the men failed to show up for a physical examination, Mrs. Leah Maxwell, board clerk, said. Further attempts to get in touch with him have been futile. His former employer told the selective service office the man moved several weeks ago without leaving a forwarding address.

Two men to whom questionnaires were sent moved without notifying the draft board. The questionnaires were returned to the selective service office.

The other 12 men failed to send in their questionnaires before the deadline, Mrs. Maxwell said.

She said men who move must notify the draft board. Such information can be telephoned to the office by calling 2473-6.

Failure to return questionnaires or report for physical examinations is a federal offense and is punishable by federal prison trems, the board pointed out.

Threats Win; Girl, Mother Drop Crusade

MOLINE, Ill.—(AP)—The month-long campaign of a mother and a daughter against slot machines was ended today—prompted by two death threats and "apathy by local groups."

Mrs. Elaine Van Muelebrock and one of her twin daughters, Marie, 26, abandoned their campaign after receiving a letter yesterday which read:

"You'll be shot tonight."

The terse message was found in a plain envelope in her mailbox by Marie. She had just returned from the trial of a tavern owner she had prosecuted on a charge of possessing a gambling device. A brick was thrown through a window of the Van Meulebrock home last Friday. Attached to it was the message, "Mamma and Marie—lay off or you die."

Pasha Escapes Kill Attempt

CAIRO — (UP) — An unidentified gang attempted to kill former Egyptian Premier Mustapha El Nahas Pasha with machine gun fire and a bomb near his home in the center of Cairo last night, it was revealed today.

Nahas escaped injury and a state of emergency was proclaimed in Cairo immediately after the attack. The former premier was returning to his home from a meeting of the Wafdist party's executive committee at Wafdist headquarters when the attack occurred.

At the gate to the house the gang opened up against Nahas and a Wafdist leader named Seregeldin with machine gun fire. Seregeldin pushed Nahas to safety and escaped injury himself.

Lose Two Key Men In Election

Chairman Busy Facing Charges

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The House unAmerican Activities committee has dropped virtually all plans for investigations during the rest of this year, it was learned today.

Two major inquiries affected by the decision were the committee's atom spy search and its check on communism in Hollywood.

A committee source said it would be up to the Democrats who take over leadership of the committee in January to decide whether the investigation plans will be revived.

The reason given for the abandonment was the election defeat of two key Republican members—Rep. John McDowell, Pa., and Rep. Richard B. Vail, Ill. In addition, Chairman J. Parnell Thomas is under indictment on charges of conspiring to defraud the government through payroll-padding and cannot devote his full time to the committee's work.

Both the communists-in-Hollywood investigation and the atom spy inquiry had been slated for resumption this month and next. Other investigations on the committee's agenda of new or unfinished business which now have been put off include:

1. The case of Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the National Bureau of Standards, accused by a subcommittee of having associated knowingly or unknowingly with communist agents.
2. Reports of communist efforts to influence Negro groups.
3. Reports of illegal crossings by communists over the Canadian and Mexican borders.

SEEK EARLY TRIAL

Government prosecutors said they will seek an early trial for Representative Thomas, who has been indicted on charges of padding his congressional payroll.

But they doubted the trial would get under way before early in January. The 53-year-old chairman of the House Un-American Activities committee will be arraigned in federal district court Tuesday, when he will plead innocent or guilty to the charges.

The indictment returned by a federal grand jury yesterday accused Thomas of conspiring to defraud the government and of making three fraudulent claims on congressional dispursing officials.

It charged that Thomas put two "dummy" employes on his payroll and then worked up an elaborate scheme with his secretary, Helen Campbell of Washington, whereby he would be reimbursed monthly in the amount of their salaries. Miss Campbell was indicted for participating in the alleged conspiracy.

World-Wide Pact Seen

OTTAWA — (UP) — The proposed North Atlantic defense pact probably will be broadened to invite all the nations of the world to join in a common front against communism, a Canadian government source said today.

As such it will bolster the United Nations by setting up an international police force of its own, this source declared.

Moreover, the informant said, Canada is pressing to include in the definition of "aggression" such a political coup as that carried out by the communists in Czechoslovakia last spring.

Preliminary stages of the North Atlantic alliance are now being worked out in informal talks here, in London and in Washington. The source who revealed some of the details of the plan now nearing draft stage has been close to the discussions at cabinet level.

Holdups Pick Wrong Victim For 'Job'

SPRINGFIELD —(AP)—The two holdup men picked the wrong place. They bound and gagged Dr. Leo G. Robinson in his office, and took $1,068 in cash and $800 in travelers' checks yesterday. He freed himself, ran across the street to police headquarters, and shortly the two men were in jail. The loot was recovered.

REP. J. PARNELL THOMAS (R-NJ) (left, with his wife), indicted in Washington, D. C., on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government and filing false federal pay claims, will be arraigned in Federal court Tuesday. The federal grand jury charged Rep. Thomas and his former secretary, Miss Helen Campbell (right) of having induced two "dummy" employes of his congressional office to "kickback" their entire salaries to him.—(International Soundphotos)

Tells of Building of A-Bomb

Engineer Predicts Armaments Race

By MILAN ORSICH

"Time is running out, and once the Russians have learned the technical know-how of producing the atom bomb, an atomic armaments race is a definite possibility," warned Walter V. Burg last night at a meeting of the Mansfield-Shelby Foremen's club

Burg, head of the department of chemical engineering at the University of Toledo, spoke at a dinner meeting at the Richland Recreation Center. More than 200 foremen heard his address. A native of Germany, Burg came to this country in 1935. Since then he has learned to speak fluent English.

"The moral and ethical values of the human race have not advanced with our technical skills," Burg said. "In order to make atomic energy work for the good of mankind and not its destruction, some over-all political control is necessary.

"However, because Russia and the western powers cannot agree on the form of this control, there seems little possibility of an international control in the near future.

Burg went on to explain the scientific theory of atomic energy. Plutonium and uranium are the two chief sources of atomic energy, Burg said and like all the elements in our universe, are made up of invisible "universes" which are called atoms. At the core of this tiny "universe," explained the scientist, is a nucleus with revolving electrons around it.

DESCRIBES ATOM POWER

"In radio, radar, and other sciences, the electrons are the important thing," said Burg. "But in atomic energy the nucleus and its splitting or fission gives us the result of the atomic bomb and energy. This fission," Burg added, "is brought about by bombarding the nucleus with an outside neutron, which results, strangely, in the complete disappearance of a part of the nucleus and from this strange phenomenon comes this great form of energy."

Burg said radio-active waves, neutrons, and atomic energy are set up by the fission. The ejection of new neutrons from each split nucleus gives what is known as the chain reaction. To build up a great power like the atomic bomb it is necessary to have billions of these "atomic universes," and each one goes through the process of splitting, Burg said.

"The bomb is a unique weapon, for you not only have a great blast and temperature as you do in dynamite, but you also have perhaps the most horrible feature of this new weapon, radio-active rays which are deadly to living organisms," the speaker added.

The possibilities of atomic energy for the good of mankind are unlimited, Burg said, and the treatment of some diseases already is an accomplished fact. We are learning much by using radio-active injections and tracing them through living organism by the use of counters, he added.

The speaker was introduced by James Root, president of the club. J. L. Moore served as program chairman.

Strike Averted

NEW YORK—(AP)—A tieup of east coast shipping—which had been threatened for any time after midnight tonight — was avoided early today by tentative settlement of pay demands of 45,000 AFL longshoremen.

Snake Dance Plans Set

Students Rally To Back Team

Mansfield Senior high students mapped a second phase of their "tank trap" offensive planned as a reception to Hamilton Public High's Big Blue steamroller when the two football teams meet Friday night in Arlin stadium.

Latest develoment in the stop-Hamilton drive was an announcement today that students will stage an old-fashioned snake dance in downtown streets Thursday evening after the Armistice day parade. Students, with cheerleaders in charge, will assemble in Central park at the bandstand for the start of festivities.

Another of the fast-breaking developments in preparation for the Hamilton game, which appeared to be approaching pre-Massillon game proportins was announcement of a pep rally in the school auditorium at 2 p. m. today with Attorney John F. Kramer, 79, veteran sports enthusiast, as principal speaker.

Meanwhile, boxes, wood and cardboard cartons began to appear at Stadium field, where preparations are going forward for Wednesday night's big bonfire student rall. D. A. Weir, Booster club chairman in charge of the pre-Hamilton "tank trap" preparations, declared that there still is need for clean, combustible material for the big bonfire, and urged any industry or business place with such material available to have it taken to Stadium field.

Former football lettermen of Senior high also prepared to join in the city-wide "back the team" program with a special rally planned for Friday night's game.

HARRISBURG, Pa. —(AP)— The nation's capital will be the target of bomber and fighter plane attacks Thursday during mock air maneuvers by the National Guard.

Little Theater Opens Season With Comedy

'Room Service' Pleases Students

By NITA BRANSON

Mansfield's Little Theater tried out "Room Service," its first production of the season, on the city's teen-agers last night and the youngsters liked it.

More than 900 jostled their way into the John Simpson auditorium, completely filled the first floor and overflowed into the balcony.

"Room Service" was written for laughs and there were plenty last night. Teen-agers particularly like Jacques Edwards, whose lines and situations provide most of the comedy. Edwards, who seems to have a natural flair for comedy, frequently stole scenes.

All were excellently cast, particularly Donald Speakman, as the young producer; Richard Hamilton, as his assistant, and Robert Hall, a friend, all of whom try desperately to get backing for the play written by Leo Davis, the part taken by Edwards.

Robert Black, as the somewhat harried mediator for the "angel," was good, and Audrey McCoy, as the star of the play, lent color and charm to a play that was almost wholly male. Marilyn Skeese was the only other woman in the cast.

After some tangled situations that at times seem almost bizarre, the play reaches a happy ending.

Between acts last night the youngsters were treated to several songs by Diana Hale and several clever magic acts by Larry Ruppert, student at Senior high school. The acts were arranged especially for the teen-agers and will not be included in the adult performances tonight and Wednesday night.

Curtain time is at 8:15 p. m. Tickets may still be obtained at the box office.

No Purge, Says Dem Chairman

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Democratic leaders turned a cold shoulder today on the proposal by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt that States' Rights supporters be purged from the party.

National Chairman J. Howard McGrath told a reporter it will be up to the Democratic members of the House and Senate to decide who gets the prized chairmanships in the new Congress.

He indicated the national committee doesn't want to mix in any such possible fight. McGrath is a senator from Rhode Island.

He hinted further—but didn't say so flatly—that any reprisal program such as Mrs. Roosevelt suggested wouldn't fit in with current efforts to solidify Democrats behind the legislative proposals President Truman will send to Congress in January.

In a radio broadcast from Paris yesterday, Mrs. Roosevelt said she would like to see "the permanent ousting of the southern Dixiecrats from the Democratic party."

The widow of the late President suggested that some southerners who opposed Mr. Truman's civil rights program would be denied congressional chairmanships if they aren't recognized as Democrats.

She named specifically Rep. John Rankin (Miss.), dubbing him "one of the worst reactionaries," and Senator Olin Johnston (S.C.).

She said Johnston "snubbed President Truman, campaigned against him and then was one of the first on the train at Washington to congratulate the victorious President after his election."

Johnston refused to attend the Jackson Day dinner here last winter because of his opposition to the President's civil rights proposals but later announced he was voting for Mr. Truman. He declined comment.

But Democratic committee officials said Mrs. Roosevelt was off base on Johnston's campaign record. William J. Primm, assistant to McGrath, said: "Senator Johnston was very helpful throughout the campaign. He has worked with the committee in every way we asked."

Tire Strike Hits Akron

3,000 Idle At Goodrich

AKRON — (INS) — An estimated 3,000 workers were idle today in the tire division of the B. F. Goodrich company plant in Akron.

The company maintains that the workers all refused to work yesterday following a change in procedure in handling tire shipping and warehousing, but the union charges that many workers on the job had been sent home.

Goodrich officials reported the tieup began when workers reported for work yesterday morning on the regular 6 a. m. shift. The men appeared discontented with the new procedure, and refused to work, according to the company.

Subsequent shifts also walked out after turning up at their regular hours, the company stated.

However, George Bass, president of Goodrich Local 5 of the CIO-United Rubber Workers, asserted:

"I was told that foremen told a lot of people to go home. When the company wants them to work, they are ready."

De Gaulle Win Rocks Cabinet

PARIS —(INS)— The French government rocked unsteadily today in the wake of Sunday's elections and reports are current that several cabinet ministers may resign.

Resignations may be handed in today at an afternoon cabinet meeting. If the cabinet is reorganized or the whole government resigns, it is expected that any new regime will be established along lines desired by Gen. Charles De Gaulle.

The victory of the French People's Rally headed by De Gaulle in the balloting for seats in the council of the republic set off widespread speculation on the government's future.

BIRTH IN POLIO WARD

TOLEDO —(UP)— Mrs. Azella Woodward, 23, a polio patient in the Maumee Valley hospital contageous unit, and her seven-pound daughter are doing well, hospital ataches said today.

Israeli Say Arabs Get Arms

London Denies Troops In Action

TEL AVIV—(INS)—Israel reported today that British troops have gone into action for the Arabs on the Palestine front and charged that Trans-Jordan has been provided with an air force.

(In London, a spokesman for the British war office categorically denied charges of British troop movements in the Middle East. He said that there are no British troops in Trans-Jordan, and that none have been sent back to Palestine since the evacuation of Palestine on May 15.)

The Israeli foreign office sent two letters to acting U.N. mediator Dr. Ralph Bunche in Paris.

They asked a thorough investigation and warned that Israel would take "a most serious view of so bold an intervention by a foreign power."

An Israeli spokesman also said that armaments of all kinds, including tanks, have been pouring into the Persian gulf port of Basra for the use of Iraqi and possibly other Arab armies.

The office of Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok sent a letter to Dr. Ralph Bunche in Paris charging that British troops "in not inconsiderable numbers" arrived in Trans-Jordan and that some already are serving on the Palestine front.

GETS AIR FORCE

The letter added:

"If the reports are true, the Israeli government would take a most serious view of so bold an intervention by a foreign power."

The Israeli government sent another letter calling attention to a recent speech by King Abdullah in which he was reported to have said that the Arab legion now has an air force of its own.

It pointed out that inasmuch as the legion previously never possessed a single aircraft "it appears clear that Trans-Jordan must have acquired its air force during the truce."

An Israeli military spokesman also alleged that during recent weeks shiploads of arms and equipment have been arriving at the port of Basra on the Persian gulf for Iraqi and possibly other Arab armies.

The spokesman said that the shipments, believed to be British, included tanks of all types.

Tries Again On Berlin

PARIS — (UP) — Renewed efforts to solve the Berlin crisis were revealed today with Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, announcing he was studying the key issue in the case.

Lie's announcement amounted to confirmation he was involved in trying to work out a new compromise formula for the Berlin dispute between Russia and the western Big Three.

He said he had begun a study of the currency problem, at one time the only point of disagreement between the East and the West. He already had conferred with the UN assembly president, and planned to talk with Juan A. Bramuglia, leader of previous ill-fated efforts to get the East and the West together on Berlin.

Young Boy, 7, Foils Robbery

CINCINNATI —(UP)— Stephen Christos, 7, whose left arm was left paralyzed by infantile paralysis four years ago, doesn't scare easily.

That's what a big gun-waving bandit discovered when he started beating Stevie's father, Gus Christos, on the head with a revolver during a holdup.

The boy grabbed his toy pistol, leaped at the gunman and pounded away at the bandits skull. The surprised bandit left Christos' restaurant without any loot.

Father Burns Child's Hand

WARREN—(INS)—Ray Noble, 29-year-old Warren father, will have to find a new way to train his five-year-old daughter—a way approved by court officials.

Noble was fined $100 and costs yesterday for burning his daughter's hand over a lighted gas jet.

Noble contended that he was merely attempting to break the child of the habit of playing with fire and that he didn't realize the gas jet flame was so high.

Sees U. S. Headed For Socialism As Result of Election Outcome

The election returns mean no more than a party victory to the old professional hacks of the big cities—O'Dwyer, Hague and Curley of the active list and Farley, Flynn and Kelly of the ancients.

It may mean no more than that to President Truman. But to the cunning and highly intelligent conspirators of the left it means that the American republic that prospered and created a standard of living beyond comparison in history is done for.

Now we go socialistic after England and we are never coming back. Truman's 81st congress will come in snorting for the blood of the aristocrats whom the President so noisily damned. The mob-rule of the union gangsters has been vindicated by the response to his theatrical shrieks against the Taft-Hartley law, which now will be repealed, thus restoring the right of club and torch to the brown shirts of the party.

Within a short time, under a fair construction of the response to one of his great campaign issues, Mr. Truman will restore price controls and the black markets with their fine business opportunities for deserving partisans. Rationing will soon ensue as a measure "short of war" so that we may feed and otherwise supply the people of Europe, who, we hope, will have the kindness to stand off the Russians for us.

These peoples, however, will weigh their chances and decide not to be implicated in our evil designs lest the victorious Russian hordes apply the Nuremburg precedent and hang them as war criminals. We could hardly object to that, remembering that we laid down that law, and we certainly couldn't raise a hand in their defense. Indeed, what with the rise of the Kremlin's own party in the United States during that time, a Henry Wallace government might hang them first, as warmongers who created bad blood between us and our Bolshevik brothers.

There is bleak comfort in the fact that if Mr. Dewey had been elected, he, too, almost certainly would have had to revive most of the shortages, coupons and intricate files of personal pedigrees which Roosevelt so dearly loved, in preparation for the Roosevelt memorial war. That war is inevitable thanks to the warm-hearted errors of the great philatelist in recognizing Russia, cultivating the communist party here and propitiating Stalin in gallant pilgrimages to Teheran and Yalta.

TO THOSE AMERICANS who have lived long enough to see the decline of freedom from the days of substantial wealth and comfort, low taxes and immunity from the peering of the FBI, the army intelligence, the treasury and agents of the anti-nazi league, the present is irksome and future ominous.

The younger people, however, have never known peace of mind, simplicity and the plain security that a man earned at a working job. They have no basis for comparison. They never knew 1913. When Truman told them that their high wages were a gift from him and Roosevelt he wasn't deceiving them except on the point that the inflation was created by Roosevelt to equalize the raises in pay. They get three times their worth as workmen in dollars worth a third in rent, clothing and food.

It is an amusing fact, for all things must pass, that the degradation of American people and their commitment to the Roosevelt memorial war with Russia are the work of European strays who were invited here as inferiors but wouldn't keep to their slums. On the contrary, they went to night school, studying Marx and sub-courses in rioting, street fighting, picketing, provocation, parliamentary tactics and public speaking. The Americans, pleasure-bent, generously ignored them. The Americans were a little surprised but lacked the intelligence to be alarmed when they discovered these people all over Washington, thick as flies in the unions of the CIO, and thicker mid the pleasures, and palaces of Palm Beach and Saratoga where the humble native cannot go.

Finding of Boswell Papers Signals Hope For World's Homely Men

NEW YORK—(AP)—If you were born poor and homely, take heart, man.

A hundred years from now the scholars may be turning handsprings over you.

At least the most exciting literary re-discoveries of recent years have dealt with two men of genius who were regarded by their contemporaries as uncouth in appearance — or downright ugly.

One was Abraham Lincoln. The opening of his long-sealed papers in 1947 still has historians astir. They expect them to throw new light on the Civil war era.

A single letter by the gangling, awkward Lincoln, who learned to read and write by firelight and rose from the log cabin to the White House, sold at auction here last April for $5,800.

Equally as dramatic as the opening of the Lincoln papers was the assembling of a lost treasure trove of literary material surrounding Dr. Samuel Johnson. It is the outstanding literary event of 1948.

The collection climaxes a 22-year search by Lieut. Col Ralph H. Isham, son of a New Jersey railroad financier, who drained his own personal fortune to buy it.

It consists of literally thousands of papers left at his death in 1795 by James Boswell, whose monumental study of Johnson is the best known biography in all literature. They were lost for more than a century in the rubbish of castles in Ireland and England.

Scholars expect them to give a complete new picture of this golden age of England, over whose literary life Johnson ruled with an iron tongue.

Johnson is only a dimly-remembered figure to most schoolboys. But to those who have taken the trouble to wade through Boswell's massive biography, he is one of the most interesting men who ever lived.

He was a kind of Noah Webster, Dorothy Parker, Alexander Woollcott and H. L. Mencken rolled into one. And something more, too. But except for Boswell, who trotted at his heels for 21 years, jotting down everything he said, Johnson would be known today only as a minor poet, dictionary maker and literary historian.

For few people now bother to read what Johnson himself wrote. They read what Boswell says he said. Such as:

"Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel."

"Hell is paved with good intentions."

"A man of genius has been seldom ruined except by himself."

"The noblest prospect which a Scotchman ever sees, is the high-road that leads him to England."

"No man but a blockhead ever wrote except for money."

★

BUT THE TART-TONGUED doctor's charm was purely conversational. Here is how he looked to Boswell at their first meeting:

"Mr. Johnson is a man of a most dreadful appearance. He is a very big man, is troubled with sore eyes, the palsy and the king's evil (scrofula).

But homely or not, Dr. Johnson, who came to London with nothing in his pockets but five cents and an unpublished tragedy, became the titan of his time — the "age of reason."

The furore over the discovery of his own papers and those of Lincoln would tickle the old lion. But this homely man of letters would be the first to hand the laurels to Lincoln, the homely man of deeds. Long ago he wrote:

"Words are men's daughters, but God's sons are things."

Boulevards Seeks Park Pavilion

Association Opens Drive For Members

Officially welcomed into the Mansfield Public Parks association last night, officials of the South Boulevards Park association set the machinery in motion for an extensive membership drive with 500 members as their goal.

Louis Piller was named chairman of the drive by Robert G. Campbell, chairman of the membership committee. Other appointments included the naming of Roger Au as chairman of the planning committee, which will work toward the construction of a park pavilion by next summer. Au will be assisted by Thomas Zaugg, Jennings Swisher, Lowell Hamilton and Frank Burton.

Held at the council hall in the Boulevards, the meeting was highlighted by the appearance of Robert Ellis, president of the Mansfield Public Parks association, who officially welcomed the new group as a member of the city organization.

Originally organized by members of the Scout organizations, the park association was enlarged to care for the great amount of work to be done on the park proper.

WANT MEETING PLACE

According to Don Cram, president of the South Boulevards group, there is a "definite need" for a meeting place for the organization, not only for the community groups which may have use for a pavilion, but also for the Boy Scout and Cub Scout troops of South Boulevards.

Other officers of the park association are Robert G. Campbell, first vice president; Frank Vild, second vice president; Lowell Hamilton, third vice president; Harold Beckel, secretary, and James Wagner, treasurer.

The board of directors includes Harry Scoles, Lester Wendland, Earl Roberts, Harry Colbow, Lester Lown, Louis Piller, Roger Au, Rev. Wray Smith, Lowell Bricker, F. K. Markley, Edward O'Brien and M. E. Pingel.

Loaded Gun, Check Stolen

Theft of a loaded revolver from a south-end filling station and an endorsed check for $112 45 from a North Franklin avenue home, were reported to police yesterday.

Jack Herring, owner of Herring's Sohio station, South Main and Blanchs streets, reported to police at 5 p. m. that someone had stolen a .38 calibre revolver from the desk drawer at the station between noon and the time of the report.

Police said the gun was registered at the police department and that it was loaded.

At 4:30 p m. Lucille Sloane, 226 North Franklin avenue, reported that a check, made out to and endorsed by her aunt, Mrs Mamie Smith, 276 North Adams street, was stolen from her bed while she stepped out of the house. The house was left unlocked, police said.

The check, made out for hospital expenses, was issued by the Provident Life and Accident Insurance company of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Registration Clean-up Set

Bicycle registration for all Mansfield bike owners who were unable to register at their appointed times will be held Saturday from 9 a. m. to noon, Paul Martin, police identification officer, announced today.

He said that so far 1,520 bikes have been registered, but that several more registration periods will be held before a deadline is set, after which time it will be illegal to ride a bicycle without a license.

Bromfield Aids Treatise

Writes Foreward For Freedom Plan

COLUMBUS —(AP)— The United States should sponsor a "Freedom International" to offset Russia's Communist International, a widely known actuary declared here today.

Emile E. Watson, consulting actuary for states and industry, made the suggestion in a treatist entitled "Is Cilivization Gaining or Losing Ground?" Louis Bromfield, author-farmer, wrote an introduction for it.

"The establishment of a 'Freedom International' is a logical necessity," Watson asserted. He said the west's failure to "engage the Communist International is regarded in Moscow as a first class blunder."

Freedom International, Watson said, would cooperate with newspapers, radio and motion pictures in arousing public opinion to offset communism at home and abroad. He added all countries outside the iron curtain "should be envisaged in this major plan."

Watson said some 14,000 copies of his treatise will be distributed to all newspaper editors and radio commentators outside the iron curtain. Copies also are going to industrial and labor leaders, clergymen, colleges and universities in this country and the British empire.

"Even Joe Stalin is going to get one," Watson said.

Freedom International, he said, would work through confidence and truth to establish freedom. The Kremlin, he declared, fears nothing so much as "the disclosure of how average citizens live in the free world."

Death Claims Mrs. Warrack

Mrs. Emma M. Warrack, 68, wife of James Warrack, died yesterday at her home at 187 Penn avenue after a lingering illness. Mrs. Warrack was a life-long resident of Mansfield.

Services will be conducted Wednesday at 3 p. m. at the Wappner funeral home with Rev. Charles F. Sheriff of St. Matthew's Lutheran church officiating. Burial will be in the Mansfield cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, a son, Arthur, and a granddaughter, Joann, all of Mansfield.

Richland Children Give Aid to Needy

By NITA BRANSON

Thirty-three city and centralized schools and 18 one-room schools are engaged in a program to promote the service work of the Junior Red Cross in Mansfield and Richland county.

From these 51 schools will come 600 boxes of educational items, the like of which little overseas war victims have not seen for many years. These boxes will be sent at various times during the year to cities and towns in Europe where they are needed most

But Junior Red Cross members don't stop there. After they have enrolled in the current membership campaign, they will join with others in helping to brighten holidays for veterans in the country's hospitals; they will stuff toys for the tiniest children overseas; they will collect sales tax stamps for their service fund, and contribute to the National Red Cross Children's fund.

Just as important as these services for children of other lands is the project carried out in their own neighborhoods for school children who need glasses but whose parents cannot afford to buy them. This project is under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Sorenson, chairman, Mrs. Brinkerhoff Spear, Mrs. Wilbur C. Beer and Mrs. Lucille Lowry. Procuring glasses for needy children is financed through the Junior Service fund.

MAKE TRAY FAVORS

"Our favors are one of the brightest projects of the year," Mrs. Ephraim Brown, Junior Red Cross chairman, said: "There are so many pretty and gay favors which can be placed on veterans' trays at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and all the other holidays of the year. These favors number hundreds before the year is over.

"Each school is assigned a certain institution for a specific number of favors. For instance, at Halloween, Lincoln Heights school made 75 favors for the veterans at Chillicothe and at Thanksgiving Mrs. Robbins kindergarten will take over this hospital for bright and gay tokens of good will."

Teacher sponsors who direct the work of the Junior Red Cross in their schools include: Mrs. Helen Cooper and Miss Lois Bachtel, Bellville; Miss Doris Gentry, Butler; Mrs. George Clever, Lexington; Mrs. Dorothy Miller and Earl Hetrick, Lucas; Mrs. Gathel Russell, East Mansfield; Mrs. Lucille Bryant, Lincoln Heights; Mrs. Claude Ewing, Madison high; Mrs. Grace Lincoln, Woodville; Miss Joy Bechtel, Plymouth; Mrs. Mabel Londot and W. W. Pittinger, Shiloh; Miss Ruth Raney, Springfield township school; Miss Ethel Sanders, Union Rural.

Mansfield's city school sponsors are: Miss Alice Schwed, Mrs. Lena Fisher and Miss Mary Agner, Bowman; Mrs. Gladys McVicar, Brinkerhoff; Mrs. Mildred Oswalt, Bushnell; Miss Ruby Doolittle, Carpenter; Mrs. Ethelouise Carpenter, Country Day; Miss Mary Jean McCormick, Mrs. Mary Bell and Mrs. Josephine Rosen, Hedges; Miss Helen Widders and Mrs. Raymond Dent, Johnny Appleseed, junior high; Miss Helen Lorow, Simpson; Mrs. Kathryn Hess, Newman; Miss Ruth Maffatt, Prospect; Sister Colette, St. Peter's; Mrs. Evelyn Ramsay, West Fifth street; Mrs. Deva Benson Woodland and Mrs Robbins, private kindergarten.

Teachers at the one - room schools who direct Junior work are Milo Brown, Amoy; Mrs. Edith Miller, Beer; Miss Wilma Smith, British; Mrs. Alice Jones, Buena Vista; Mrs. Fern Yuncker, Center Hall; Mrs. Ruth Brown, Forest Hall; Mrs. Mary SirLouis, Franklin; Mrs. Esther Lash, Gamble; Mrs Hilda Bowman, Koogle; Miss Opal Swisher, Little Washington; Miss Genevieve Griffeth, Morton; Miss Marvena Hershey and Clayton Blust, Olivesburg; Mrs. Wilma Dudley and Mrs. Naomi Betz, Pavonia; Miss Grace Gwirtz, Pleasant Grove; Foster Keinath, Pleasant Valley; Mrs. Bernice French, Shenandoah; Miss Helen Light, Terman, and Mrs. Ella Clever, Windsor.

Shelby's group includes Mrs. Frieda Weaver, high school; Miss Lucille Fenner, Central; Sister Rosella, St. Mary's; Miss Carolyn Bond, Grant; and Miss Ruby Smith, Hayes.

Thieves Just Don't Want Him to Ride

W. Richard Simms of 73 Sycamore street has been having a lot of trouble recently with his modes of transportation.

Yesterday, Simms reported to sheriff's deputies his outboard motor boat has been missing from Pleasant Hill dam dock since Oct. 30. A couple months ago, Simms' motorcycle was found half-submerged in Mifflin lake

The boat, 12 feet long and having a 32-inch beam, was homemade, galvanized and painted grey. Simms said the boat had a varnished oak deck.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Although Carl F. Routzahn is spending his 69th birthday today at General hospital, relatives and friends are helping to make it an enjoyable day for him. The R. B. Maxwell company, which he heads, sent him a big birthday cake on a silver platter, with yellow flowers around it and yellow candles. Every employe of the store sent him a birthday card. This morning his room was filled with greetings. Routzahn has been at General hospital since he was taken ill Sept. 19. He is general manager of the R. B. Maxwell company, a native of Mansfield and former internal revenue collector for the Cleveland area. His condition was reported at the hospital today as "good" and he has been able to take a daily short walk in the hospital corridors.

Also celebrating today is Clifton Small, president of the Simon Small and Sons company. Small will have a quiet dinner tonight with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Small and two-year-old son. Small is a native of Mansfield, a member of the Elks, and has been with the family firm for years.

LOOKING AHEAD—

Mansfield's 164th fighter squadron of the Air National Guard won 15 new "recruits" yesterday —the only trouble is that the "recruits" have some growing-up to do before their enlistment can materialize. The enthusiastic little visitors were the first, second and third graders from Country Day school who were taken on a "field" trip to the airport by their teacher, Mrs. Helen Shaw. Capt. William O. Ash, commander of the squadron, who showed the youngsters around, said every one of them promised to enlist when they "got to be 17." The children saw aircraft at the field, an exhibition of taking off and flying by members of the squadron, a tour of the weather station and the thrill of hearing a pilot talk with the ground for his landing instructions.

BEHIND THE TIMES—

Strangers going to the city building aren't likely to get much help from the obsolete directories at both entrances. Opening of the new municipal courtroom on the third floor caused changes in the building with which the directories haven't caught up. The courtrooms are still listed on the first floor. When the new courtroom was opened the detective and identification bureaus were moved into the old courtroom. The WPA and sales tax office, now extinct, are still on the directories.

541 Gain Reported By Board

Levering Boosts His Margin

The number of Richland county voters in last Tuesday's general election was boosted yesterday when the official figures were announced by Thomas R. Zeigler, clerk of the county board of elections.

The official number of voters was 32,895 in the county, an increase of 541 over the unofficial tabulation. The official figure for Mansfield was 17,245.

Official figures show that Attorney Robert W. Levering, Mt. Vernon, increased his Richland county lead over Congressman J. Harry McGregor in the 17th district congressional race to 400 votes. His unofficial margin was 348. McGregor, a Republican, was re-elected, however, on the basis of his showing in other counties in the district.

The official tabulation gave Levering (D) 15,813 votes to 15,413 for McGregor.

In the presidential race, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey had 15,894 votes while President Truman received 14,712, according to the official count. The unofficial vote was the same for Dewey and 14,810 for Truman, the President losing 88 votes.

The first Wallace elector candidate received 276 votes, as compared with 258 in the unofficial tally. The vote totals for the Wallace elector candidates ranged from 269 to 280 votes.

LAUSCHE HOLDS LEAD

Governor-elect Frank J. Lausche kept his lead over Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, with an official tally of 16,144 compared with 15,894 for Herbert. Unofficial figures showed 15,883 for Herbert and 16,138 for Lausche.

The official tally in Richland county for state candidates, compared with the unofficial tally, follows:

For lieutenant governor: Paul M. Herbert (R), 15,149, up 10; George D. Nye (D), 15,088, up six.

For secretary of state: Charles F. Sweeney (D), 15,883, up eight; Edward J. Hummel (R), 14,192, up nine.

For auditor of state: Joseph T. Ferguson (D), 16,796, up eight; Roger W. Tracy (R), 13,296, up 17.

For attorney general: Hugh S. Jenkins (R), 14,265, up 11, Herbert S. Duffy (D), 15,396, up six.

For treasurer of state: Don E. Ebright (R), 15,253, up 111; Harry V. Armstrong (D), 14,687, up seven.

For state supreme court (Jan. 1 term): Edward J. Turner (R), 11,167, up 24; Charles H. Mubbell (D), 11,627, up four.

For state supreme court (Jan. 2 term): Kingsley A. Taft (R), 12,425, up one; Robert M. Sohngen (D), 10,210, same.

For state supreme court (unexpired term): James Garfield Stewart (R), 18,782, up 200. He had no opposition.

In the race for congressman-at-large George H. Bender (R) had an official vote tally of 14,512 while his opponent, Stephen M. Young had 15,207 in Richland county. Young carried the state. Their unofficial totals were Bender, 14,498, and Young, 15,202 in Richland county.

The official vote for the $48,000 Plymouth school bond issue shows a vote of 723 to 153, including the vote of areas in Crawford and Huron counties which vote on the issue. The issue passed by a vote of 82.5 per cent. A majority of 65 per cent is required for passage.

Officials Study Toledo Plan

Four city officials went to Toledo today to study new types of curbs and gutters now in use in that city.

Mayor Roy W. Vaughn, Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison, Councilman Fred Miller, and Councilman C. N. Shultz were accompanied by George McCord, a representative of the Portland Cement association. The city engineer of Toledo was to show them the new installations.

The improved type of curbs and gutters are being studied with an eye toward using them in Mansfield, Garrison said.

McKinley High Still Rates as State's Best

RUMORS HAVE BEEN floating around that Canton McKinley has used ineligible players this year. . . . However, a check of birth certificates has proven the rumors unfounded. . . . The age of mustache-wearing Tony Ranalli seems to have started it all. . . Tony was in the army for a year and a half but won't be 19 until next February. . . . Alliance, beaten badly by the Bulldogs, started the rumor mill by requesting birth certificates on all of the Canton players.

THERE'S ALMOST a case of treason on the Army football club. . . . Bob Blaik, six-foot, two-inch son of Coach Red Blaik, prefers ice hockey to football. . . . But he's also playing quarterback on the Army yearling team. . . . Red will probably keep him on the gridiron. . . . Ohio State is using a quartet of T-men at right guard. . . . There's Dave Templeton, George Toneff, James (Shag) Thomas and Joe (Tubby) Taberner. . . . Templeton, the former Mansfield Senior high star, is reputedly the oldest football captain in the history of the Bucks. . . . He is 27.

First Four Spots Same On 2 Polls

For the first time this season, high school football polls released by the Associated Press and the International News Service jived in the most important aspects.

Both, of course, had the mighty Canton McKinley Bulldogs perched on the top spot and followed with Hamilton, Middletown and Massillon. The latter club moved up by dumping Toledo Waite from the ranks of the unbeaten, 19 to 7.

MORE CEMENT

McKinley further cemented its hold on the top spot with that 12 to 7 victory over the Lakewood Rangers. Many Canton fans say the once-beaten Lakewood boys were the finest and strongest ever to appear in Fawcett stadium. A 61-yard pass interception by Elijah Lipkin gave the Bulldogs their eighth straight.

Only 15 of the state's 575 scholastic teams are still undefeated. Hamilton and Middletown kept pace with Canton by crocking Canton Timken, 39 to 0 and Chillicothe, 30 to 0, respectively.

After the first four, there's some divergence in the remainder of the two polls. However, Martins Ferry, Lakewood, Newark, Alliance and Toledo Waite have places on both. Newark is the only unbeaten-untied team in the group while Martins Ferry has won seven and tied one.

WAITE IN TIES

The AP had unbeaten Akron St. Vincent's tying Toledo Waite for ninth while Gallipolis another undefeated crew, was eighth in the INS rankings with Waite tied with New Philadelphia.

Alliance rolled up the biggest score in smashing Columbus Aquinas, 68 to 0.

Mansfield Senior high school fell from 13th to 16th in the AP poll by squeezing past weak Marion Harding, 12 to 6, in the rain.

Garcia Clamoring For Return Fight After Taking KO

PHILADELPHIA —(INS)— Buddy Garcia is clamoring for a rematch today with lightweight champion Ike Williams, and quite a few of the 7,000 fans who saw him knocked out at the end of the first round last night think he deserves one.

For two minutes and 59 seconds in the initial stanza of their scheduled over-the-weight 10-rounder, the two fought a give-and-take battle at the Philadelphia arena. Then Williams lashed out with a left hook and followed with a right uppercut which sunk into Garcia's solar plexis as the bell sounded.

Garcia turned for his corner, gasped, and fell on his face, and his seconds wouldn't let him come out for the second round. Ringsiders were divided in their opinions on whether the champion's knockout blow came at or after the bell.

Army Frowns On Bowl Tilts

WEST POINT, N. Y. —(U.P.)— There were indications today that U. S. military academy officials still frowned on post-season games for its football team.

Commenting on a report in the New York Daily Mirror that the unbeaten Cadets have been invited to meet the University of California in a charity game, Lt. Col. Orrin C. Kreuger said that he "did not know whether or not such an invitation has been received but, if it has, it would be turned down."

At Berkeley, Cal., Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf of the California Bears, said that he knew of no such arrangement.

Bob Lynch Pounds Maples To 643 Tune In Club Loop

Only two Club leaguers cracked the mythical honor roll last night on the Colony alleys but both did it in convincing fashion.

Bob Lynch, long recognized as one of the best bowlers in the city, came home with a 215-194-234—643 to be far and away the best of the night on local lanes. His 234 was also the top single game.

Pete Linster turned in the most consistent job to pace American Legion to the high team score of the night. Pete fired a 214-200-212—626 to lead the Legion five to a 2620 score.

Although nearly fifty pins behind, Danner Dalton and Art Hilborn tied for third place with 579's. Max Worthley was far off from his first game with 135 but came back to post 215 and 223 for a 573 count. George Condos had 542, Bob Hilborn, 538; Lloyd Pugh, 530.

As befitting Optimist week, the Optimists took over first place in the league standing with a two-out-of-three victory, while Baku Grotto dropped to second by losing two of three.

★

Jake Streitmater of Urschel Insurance sandwiched a fine 242 between a 192 and 169 to record a 603, the only honor roll tally in the Commercial C loop. Harold Matthews of Local 17 was runner-up with 594, followed by Don Dancer 575. Bob Hilborn 572, J. Miller 556, Fred Carver 553, Leo Hetler 552, and Dan Bormuth 551.

Urschel Insurance won three straight games to tie Local 17 for the loop lead. The Union men dropped one of three contests.

★

Women's Variety league bowlers took a back seat to nobody. Although no 600 series were posted in the league the women averaged as well or better than the men on a comparative basis.

Florence Handwork of National Cash Register had the best tally of the night, 196-183-202—581. Not far to the rear was Evelyn Marshman with 183-198-197—578, and Arlene Peters, 165-197-213—575. Betty Bishop posted 552, and Peg Shoup 525. Thelma Cox just reached the 500 mark.

League-leading National Cash Register and second-place Mitsch's Corner store both won three straight games.

★

M. Cramer drew quite a bit of attention in the Richland A league at Richland Recreation when he started off with eight straight strikes. He missed in the ninth frame and had a split in the tenth for a 252 score.

Miller's Hi Life bounced back into tie for first place with Oak Park Tavern by taking three straight games. Sons of Italy and Frank Williams' also swept their matches to move up in the standings. Cramer took all individual honors with a 582 total along with his high single game.

★

George York paced the Gorman-Rupp league at Colony with a 163-191-170—524. Joe Laibach turned in a 519 and Earl Turner a 505.

Northern grade school league, Saturdays at 10 a. m.: Newman Red-Birds, Bowman Eagles, West Fifth Lions and Bushnell Tigers.

Three Big Pro Games On Schedule

By LES CONKLIN

NEW YORK—(INS)—Just three really titanic games remain on this year's pro football schedule, and divisional titles will be riding on each one.

The championship of the western section of the National Football league will be decided by the outcome of the clash between Chicago's Bears and Cardinals at Wrigley field Dec. 12.

In the rival All-America conference, the outstanding thriller-diller will be next Sunday's classic between the champion Cleveland Browns and the mighty San Francisco 49'ers. A capacity crowd of approximately 85,000 will jam Cleveland's municipal stadium for the showdown battle between the two teams, both of whom are undefeated this year.

THIRD TOP ONE

The third pay-off contest, which likely will determine the eastern winner in the junior circuit, will be between the vastly improved New York Yankees and the pace-setting Buffalo Bills Nov. 28.

Next Sunday's AAC donnybrook between Cleveland and San Francisco will be an encore of the historic joust between the immovable body and the irresistible force. The 49'ers are leading the league in scoring, total offense and rushing, and the Browns are tops in defense.

San Francisco has scored 359 points in 10 starts as compared with Cleveland's major league record of 423 in 1946. Already, the California juggernaut has racked up 50 touchdowns against Cleveland's record 56 of last year.

FIGURES MUST LIE

Cleveland's Otto Graham is supposed to be a whale of a football player, but latest AAC averages released today do not show it.

Graham is third to Buffalo's George Ratterman and San Francisco's Frankie Albert in passing, and no better than fourth in total offense, behind Glenn Dobbs of Los Angeles, Yelberton Abraham Tittle of Baltimore, and Ratterman.

Dobbs, going strong despite a set of damaged ribs, also leads the league in punting.

Bowman, Hedges Battle Tomorrow For Loop Crown

Bowman and Hedges battle tomorrow for the championship of the Mansfield grade school touch football league.

Hedges won the southern division championship by taking four straight victories. Bowman is undefeated in the northern section and is scheduled to go against Newman this afternoon at Tappan field.

The championship contest will be played at Stadium field at 4 p. m. Officials will be Harry Mehock, Ike Fetter, Charley Stine and Verne Jones.

One game was played last night, West Fifth tying Bushnell, 20 to 20. Mose Watson scored all 20 points for Bushnell.

WEST FIFTH
ENDS—Hallabrin, Lauer, Elmas.
TACKLES—Hilligoes, Woodbury, Workman, Pennepacker, George.
GUARDS—Bauberry, Leitenberger, Kostoss.
CENTER—Westler.
BACKS—Bishop, Moses, Miller, Larned, Earnest.

BUSHNELL
ENDS—Burton, Vaughn, Kennedy, Antrican, Scheurman.

Shelby Juniors Battle Ashland

SHELBY — The Shelby Junior Varsity will tangle with the Ashland Reserves under lights at Skiles Field at 7:30 Wednesday.

The J. V.'s defeated Ashland a few weeks ago by a score of 14 to 13 at Ashland and the A's will be out for revenge.

Also featured will be the half-time performance of the 48-piece Junior band and the Junior Hi chorus, 100 voices strong.

Football Civil War Listed Here Friday

By FRED THARP, News-Journal Sports Editor

"The Civil war will be re-enacted Friday night at Arlin field."

Those were the words of a concerned Augie Morningstar last night before the weekly grid jamboree of the Tyger booster club in the Senior high school auditorium.

And Augie has a perfect right to be concerned. For his twice-beaten Tygers are getting ready for a pitched battle with the football forces of Hamilton Public high school Friday. The Hamilton Big Blue has not yet been pushed in rolling over eight Ohio scholastic foes this year.

The Civil war pitch works something like this. Hamilton is the south's most feared aggregation and Mansfield represents the only strong northern opposition the Big Blue will do battle with this season.

FANS SEETHING

Hamilton's fans are seething because they figure the state's sports scribes are doing "their boys" a horrible injustice by putting them second in state polls. Senior high knows, too, that it must blitz Hamilton to regain its gridiron prestige, tarnished by that defeat at the hands of the Massillon "panzer" division.

But here are the words of the Tyger athletic director and gridiron chief of staff.

"Hamilton is the greatest thing in the history of football. They're national champs—they say. We're the only strong northern team they play and they'll run up the score if they can. They're mad about the rankings. They figure the only reason they're not up there is because Hamilton is in the southern part of the state. This won't be a football game—it'll be a civil war."

"Hamilton figures it has the three greatest ends in the state," he continued. "The only thing that worries the Hamilton fans is that only two of the ends can make the all-state. But we're going to have Bailey night, too, at the stadium Friday."

GREAT BAILEY

The Bailey in question is Hamilton's great halfback—Jim Bailey. He's a 190-pound hunk of terrific football player who measures some six-feet, two inches. Bailey, who wears No. 50, runs, passes and punts exceedingly well and backs up the line on defense.

Morningstar says there's only one thing wrong with Bailey. "He lives in Hamilton instead of Mansfield."

Hamilton averages some 177 pounds, which gives them a bulge of about 15 pounds to the man more than the Tygers.

Carl Henkel, Mansfield attorney, who shared speaking honors with Morningstar, discounted the weight advantage with "when a big fellow falls—he falls harder than a little one."

Henkel's interesting talk was slanted toward fan interest in athletic teams as well as other pursuits of education endeavor. He said, "There's no one too young or too old to be interested in football. But there's too many people on the fence and not mingling with the boys on the football team."

"These persons are not giving the boys the support they deserve," he pointed out. "When a lad wears a football suit he is representing us. We must be for every man on the team and not pick favorites. The team must have teamwork."

"We need a different spirit in Mansfield because the persons seem a little over-confident. If Mansfield wants the best, something must be done about it—athletics don't just happen. We must be loyal to our school, win or lose. It's our team and we should be proud of them."

Continuing Henkel stressed, "The players are under a strain all of the time and they will make mistakes. Let's don't take it too seriously. Let's let them know we are behind them no matter what."

THIS WOULD HELP

"The boys can only have the spirit we communicate to them. It would help every boy if he felt the people of Mansfield were behind him."

★

The Tygers were at Arlin field four hours last night but only one was spent on the practice field. Ninety minutes were consumed in the conference room with Morningstar showing pictures of the Massillon game. Both Massillon and Hamilton use the same offense so the Tygers got a chance to go over the mistakes of the Massillon game plus an insight of what is coming up Friday.

★

Members of the News-Journal sports staff presented Morningstar with a pair of baby shoes with football cleats attached. The presentation was made by Bob Young as the Tyger coach took the floor for his report.

★

Morningstar announced last night that Ken McCally, promising soph quarterback, suffered a cracked bone in his left leg during the game with the Massillon sophomores Oct. 30. Coach Vern Hoffman's Tyger cubs play at Massillon again Saturday morning.

★

Nine-year-old Roy Hostetter, a Hedges fourth grader, was presented the football autographed by the Tyger players and coaches. Roy says he's on the grid squad at Hedges and is looking forward to the time he can play with the Tygers.

★

Pictures of the Massillon-Mansfield game were shown to conclude the program. The Marching Tygers of J. Merton Holcombe played before the booster session.

Ohio Staters Prepping For Illini Contest

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Ohio State university's gridders are beginning to wind up for their semi-final game Saturday with Illinois at Champaign.

After that there's only Michigan and football for Columbus will be laid to rest for another year except for the sporadic outbursts of the downtown quarterbacks.

Scout Dick Fisher told the Buckeyes yesterday that Illinois was a "great defensive ball club" and went through other expressions intended to inform the boys that Saturday would be no breeze like last Saturday. They swamped the Pittsburgh Panthers then, 41 to 0.

After looking at the movies of last Saturday's game, the Ohio Staters went out for a light drill in their sweat suits.

Fullback Joe Whisler of Willard and quarterback Pete Perini of New Village, N. J., ran around the field several times but didn't try to work out with the team. They were hurt some Saturday, and while Whisler is expected to play against Illinois, there is some question about Perini.

End Charlie Gilbert of Columbus also may be out of service this week.

Two Headliners Open Akron Pro Fight Sked

AKRON —(INS)— Two 10-rounders headline Akron's first professional fight card of the season Wednesday night at the armory.

Phil Muscato, Buffalo heavyweight, meets Shamus O'Brien of New York and welterweight Fritzie Pruden of Paterson, N. J., tangles with Buffalo's Larry Jordan.

Teams Clash For Madison Junior Title

The Madison band, homecoming queens, and all the regalia that goes to make up a championship football game will be on hand tomorrow night for the junior high clash at Madison field.

East Mansfield is scheduled to meet the Lincoln Heignts-Woodville combination for the Madison township junior title at 7:30 p. m.

The game is being sponsored by the Madison booster club and all proceeds are to go for athletic equipment for the three junior high schools. New football uniforms and shoes will be purchased with the money. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

ELECT QUEENS

Queens elected at the three schools yesterday were: Alice Baumberger, Lincoln Heights; Barbara Bennett, East Mansfield; and Ann Durig, Woodville. The Madison high band will entertain at half-time and will present a special program honoring the queens.

Jim Lymper, Fred LaRue and Ed Beveridge will officiate the game. A meeting of the Madison boosters club will follow in the school.

Dudley Is No. 1 For AA President

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Bruce Dudley, a former sports writer turned baseball executive, apparently was on the inside track today toward the presidency of the American association.

A three-man committee met here today to "screen" candidates for the job and retiring President Frank Lane said, "in all probability a new league president will evolve from this meeting." Dudley now is president of the Louisville club.

Wilson Tells of 'Sanity Code'

(Remember the "sanity code"—the NCAA restrictions governing aid to college athletes? Was it just a phrase, an unworkable idea? Have possible violations and violators actually been investigated? If so, why hasn't the public been informed?

(The following article, written exclusively for International News Service by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, secretary-treasurer of the NCAA and Western Conference Athletic Commissioner, gives the answers.)

By KENNETH L. WILSON

CHICAGO —(INS)— Putting the NCAA "sanity code" into effect in the collegiate athletic world is similar to putting a new law into effect throughout the nation.

There are more than 375 universities and colleges which are members of the National Collegiate Athletic association. It takes considerable time to distribute and advise the membership fully of the terms and interpretations of the new code. There is the necessity of committee counsel with member schools so that all institutions clearly understand what they can do and what they can not do in relation to the "sanity code."

MUM'S THE WORD

In order to make the enforcement machinery of the code work, it was necessary and important to provide that charges of violations, correspondence with the alleged violator and any investigations be kept in strictest confidence until such time that the case in question is closed.

Naturally, disciplinary action will be made public upon conclusion.

The new NCAA rules establish three distinct types of scholarships as being permissible. Scholarship policies affect many levels of a university's administration and whenever new policies are adopted it takes considerable time and effort to make the necessary adjustments.

There are two committees which plan an extremely important role in the enforcement of the NCAA's new legislation.

One is the three-man constitutional compliance committee under the chairmanship of Clarence P. Houston of Tufts college, former athletic director and now professor of commercial and constitutional law.

The other group is called "the panel" under the chairmanship of James Lynah of Savannah, Ga., formerly athletic director at Cornell university and a retired business executive. The panel is composed of 33 men. From this group is drawn three-man fact finding committees to investigate charges of violations if the allegations are sufficiently sound to warrant such investigations.

There have been some 18 charges of violations directed to Mr. Houston under the procedure established by the association's membership and its executive committee, and as has been explained, nothing can be said about them at this time.

The question has been raised as to how an institution is dismissed from membership in the NCAA if it is found to be violating the code. Under Article IV of the Constitution, Section 6, it is provided that ". . . membership of any active member failing to maintain the acceptable scholarship and/or athletic standards required of applicants for membership may be terminated by the vote of two-thirds of the delegates present at an annual convention."

Michigan Slips Back Into College Poll Lead

Notre Dame In Second; Army Third

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Michigan Wolverines topped the nation's football teams in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers today, regaining first place from Notre Dame by a slim margin.

Although the Irish outscored Michigan, 80-77, in first place votes, the point total gave Michigan the No. 1 spot by a margin of 1,836 to 1,775—just the opposite of last week.

Army surged into third place with 14 first place ballots and 1,553 points. California moved up a peg to fourth, with 11 of the 205 voters ranking them the best in the country and a total of 1,244 points.

BIGGEST ADVANCE

Penn State showed the most startling advance, jumping from 14th to fifth on its fine 13-0 victory over previously unbeaten Pennsylvania. The Nittany Lions drew only one first place pick but had 840 points.

Despite North Carolina's unexpected 7-7 tie with William and Mary, the Tar Heels pulled seven firsts and ranked sixth with 757 points. They dropped only three pegs on the tie.

Southern Methodist, a 20-14 winner over the Texas Aggies, moved up one step to seventh with 625 points and Northwestern hopped into eighth position on a 16-7 margin over Wisconsin with a point total of 575.

OUT OF NOWHERE

Oklahoma came out of nowhere, hopping from 15th to ninth with 466 points by smothering high-ranked Missouri, 41-7. Clemson moved into tenth place with 284.

Penn State, Oklahoma and Clemson are the new faces in the top 10. They shoved out Georgia Tech, which fell from sixth to 11th, Pennsylvania which dropped from seventh to 17th, and Missouri, which tumbled from ninth to 20th.

In addition to Michigan, Notre Dame, Army, California, Penn State and North Carolina, others receiving first place votes were Oklahoma 5, Clemson 8, and Michigan State and Georgia, each one.

Card Complete For Exhibition

CLEVELAND —(INS)— The card was complete today for the Cleveland boxing card a week from tonight featuring a six-round exhibit between Joe Louis and Jimmy Bivins.

Two four-rounders and a six-frame tussle have been scheduled underneath the chuck hunter-Nick Barone feature preliminary.

Sammy Mastrean, undefeated Pittsburgh welterweight, meets Harry Marshall of Detroit in the six-heat clash.

The four-rounders pair Ricky Ronci, Youngstown heavyweight, against Paul Simpson of Cleveland, and Al Gronik, Detroit welterweight, versus George Kolarik, also of Cleveland.

Isbell Figures Browns to Win

CLEVELAND —(UP)— Coach Cecil Isbell considered the 28-to-7 defeat handed his Baltimore Colts by the Cleveland Browns yesterday and predicted today that the all-America conference champs would wallop the San Francisco '49ers when they clash for western division leadership next Sunday.

"It ought to be quite a ball game," he said. "I think the Browns will win it though. The '49ers are tough but the Browns should win."

George Toporcer Heads Sox Chain

CHICAGO —(UP)— The Chicago White Sox today announced the signing of George Toporcer, veteran of 28 years in organized baseball, to manage the Sox minor league chain.

Toporcer, 49, recently was released by the Boston Red Sox after directing the Boston farm system for 14 years. Prior to that, he spent 14 years with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Bucyrus Sweeps to First Northern Ohio Loop Title

BELLEVUE—Bucyrus swept to its first undisputed Northern Ohio league championship here last night by coming from behind to blast Bellevue, 20-13.

The Redmen, tied once in seven previous contests, fell behind in the first quarter but Fullback Bob Dutcher tied it up shortly before the half ended when he plunged over from the four-yard line, then plunged again for the extra point.

Bucyrus was not to be denied and in the third quarter Bill Kibler, the league's leading scorer, put the Redmen ahead with a touchdown. Dutcher added another in the fourth period and this time Johns plunged for the point.

It was Bucyrus' first Northern Ohio league championship since the inception of the league in 1945. The Redmen won the North Central Ohio loop title 23 years ago and finished in a three way tie in the same league in 1940.

The Redmen conclude their season Friday by playing host to the Mansfield Madison Rams.

Battle of Bulge Hits 3 New York Yankee Players

NEW YORK—(INS)—Three members of the New York Yankees were conscripted today in the newest battle of the bulge.

The Yankee management does not intend to let pitchers Frank Shea and Floyd Bevens, and second baseman George Stirnweiss, get overweight during this winter's banquet league.

Shea and Bevens, who live close to New York City, have been ordered to report for periodical examinations by the club's physicians. Bevens will do likewise in Oregon.

The New York club believes that added weight caused Shea and Stirnweiss, in particular, to have bad seasons in 1948.

Louis Gets 'Black' Eye From Shkor

BOSTON—(UP)—As a result of their exhibition bout at the Arena, Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis had a "shiner" today while his rival, Johnny Shkor, had an increased stature as a heavyweight contender.

Beyond any argument, Louis won each of the four rounds of their bout last night. But Shkor put up a stubborn battle that packed more action than Louis' second clash with Joe Walcott.

STUNS BOSTONITE

Time and again the champion stunned the Boston giant with vicious left hooks but Shkor continued to retaliate with solid punches, many of which landed. Louis said the hardest punch he received was a solid smash on the jaw, but the one that left the most effect was a left hook that nearly closed Louis' eye.

"That one on the jaw was an awful good punch," said Louis. "He really hits pretty hard."

Shkor, his nose swelling from one Louis punch, said, "He's good all right, but I'd sure like to fight him for the title anytime, anyplace, anywhere."

Registered and Grade
Close-Up and Fresh

At my farm on U. S. Route 42, between Delaware and Plain City, Ohio

TUESDAY AFTERNOON,
NOVEMBER 16th
1:00 P. M.—Lunch Served

Also offering a yearling bull, Son of Montvic Rag Apple Sovereign, and out of a 2-year old dam with a BF record over 400-lbs in 305-da. 2x First and second calf heifers and young cows, make up the entire offering. All are just fresh or close-up. With the optimistic future in sixth for the dairy industry, now is the time, to increase the herd for a greater income. Now is also the best time for those who desire to go into dairying.

The ratio between feed costs and milk prices is now the most advantageous for the dairyman.

The following are a few of the Headliners:

BALSAM BRA JUDY GIRL

Born, 4-15-42; ROP, 365-da., 5-yr., 2x, 3.7%, 18243m., 675.F.; bred to Colwell Rag Apple Chief, 2-12-48.

RAG APPLE MYRTLE ABBEKERK

Born, 2-18-43; ROP, 305-da., 4-yr., 2x, 3.7%, 14400m., 533 F.; bred to Cedar Dell Pride Lochinvar 2-19-48.

ROSEDALE BANOSTINE
PABST VICTOR

Born, 1944; ROP, 305-da., 3-yr., 2x, 3.8% 11100 m.; 420.F.

All of these cows and heifers are from the better herds of Canada where breeding of quality and type, has always been their objective.

The Grade Cows and Heifers are also rugged and sound Canadians, whose production is very high.

A large percentage of the entire offering is calfhood vaccinated.

Calves sold separately, and guaranteed for one week from sale date.

Registration certificates transferred free of charge.

Four Generation Pedigrees Furnished.

STATE LABORATORY TESTED.
Guaranteed to be as Represented.

DISPERSAL SALE

Due to another position I am quitting farming and will sell the following, located 3 miles south of West Salem, on St. Rt. 301, on

Thursday, Nov. 11th
at 11:00 A.M.

17 Head of Registered
Holsteins

This is a very good herd of cattle, including 2 daughters of "Sir Aaggie Pride Ormsby" former "Fleetwing" herd sire, and both due at sale time to a son of "Dumloggin Woodsman"; 5 daughters of "Carnation Liberator" out of a 1000-lb. fat dam; 3 daughters of "Carnation Pilot," the 1000-lb. fat Richman Farms herd sire. The 2-year-old herd sire, a son of "Dumloggin Woodsman" out of a 454-lb. fat 2-year-old dam. These cows are on D. H. I. A. test and several have records up to nearly 500 lbs. fat on 2X. Herd average the last 2 years has been well over 400 lbs. on 2X. In 1946-47 average was 459.5 lbs. fat. Everything is bred to the herd sire except for some yearlings and calves which he has sired. All but one cow was bred and raised on this farm. Everything has been calfhood vaccinated. Cattle are negative on T. B. and Bangs within 30 days of sale.

This is indeed an opportunity to buy well bred cattle with type and production. Seldom do you find a herd where such high record sires have been used. A number of cows fresh or due at sale time.

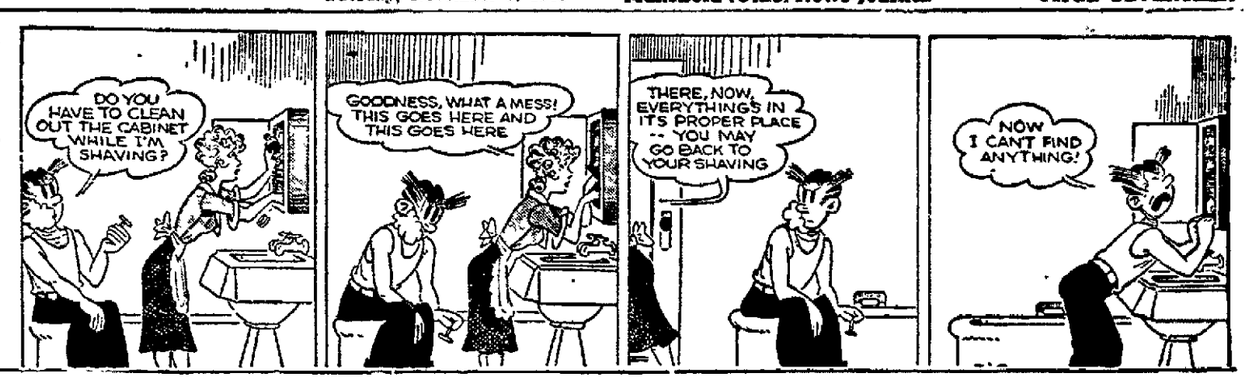
JOE PALOOKA

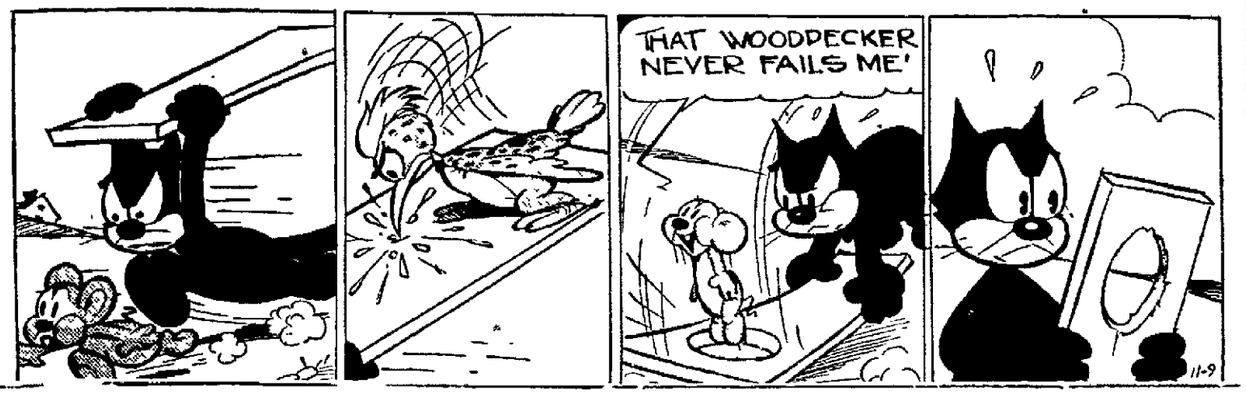
YA DON'T BUM... C'MON OUT AN' I'LL BEAT YA TO A PULP... YA RAT!
HELLO... THIS IS CLIFF, LIMEHOUSE BROOKS KAYOED JOE PALOOKA IN TRAINING!
HELLO... GIVE ME SIEGEL — GET THIS IN THE BULLDOG EDITION... ...JOE PALOOKA WAS KNOCKED OUT BY...
GET ME THE DESK.
I... I'M OKAY... WHEW!
GIMME TH' IODINE... C'MON... HURRY UP!
HE MUST HAVE BEEN OUT FOR, WHAT WOULD HAVE BEEN AN EIGHT COUNT.
MORE THAN THAT!

BLONDIE



DO YOU HAVE TO CLEAN OUT THE CABINET WHILE I'M SHAVING?
GOODNESS, WHAT A MESS! THIS GOES HERE AND THIS GOES HERE
THERE, NOW, EVERYTHING'S IN IT'S PROPER PLACE — YOU MAY GO BACK TO YOUR SHAVING
NOW I CAN'T FIND ANYTHING!

FELIX



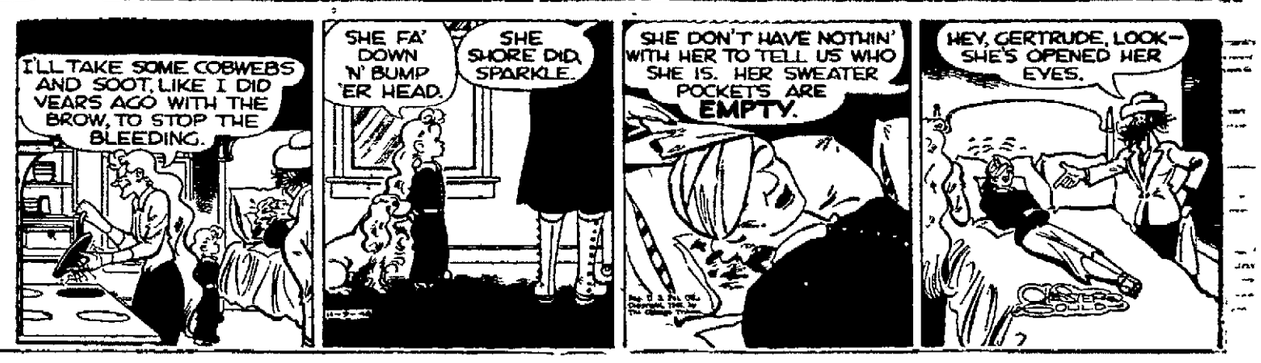
ORPHAN ANNIE

IT'S "BIG MONSTER"—
ONCE A KILLER ALWAYS A KILLER—
SHOT THEM DOWN IN COLD BLOOD!
THERE'S YOUR MAN, OFFICER—
NO! NO! "MONSTER" IS GOIN' STRAIGHT—THOSE TWO CAME HERE TO KILL HIM— IT WAS SELF-DEFENSE—
THAT'S RIGHT— I SAW IT, TOO—
11-9-48
YEAH! I KNEW THOSE TWO HOODS—NICE WORK, IF I DO SAY SO—YOU SHOULD BE ON TH' FORCE, "MONSTER"—

TERRY & PIRATES

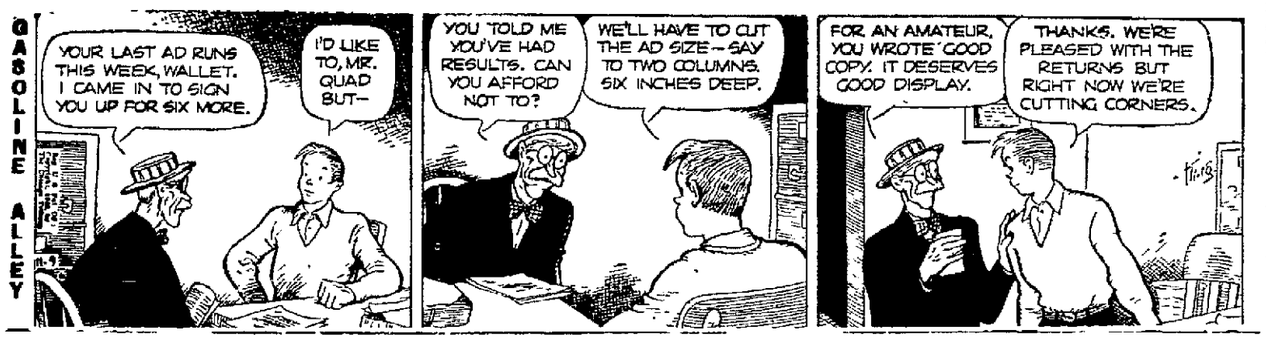
BABY! YOU'RE RIGHT! THAT CLOWN IS JUST ANOTHER NOTCH IN CHUM FUN'S SENSE OF HUMOR.
LIKELY A GUARD WHO DOZED ENOUGH FOR LAUGHING BOY TO SLIP THE CAT DOWN THE BACK OF HIS NECK...
...THE CAT DOESN'T APPROVE OF HIS NEW SHIRT-MATE AND STARTS CARVING HIS WAY OUT ... IT FIGURES!
HEY, YOU TWO! IT LOOKS LIKE THE VICTIM IS RETURNING TO THE SCENE OF THE CRIME.
QUICK! HE HEADED INTO THIS ALLEY...

DICK TRACY



I'LL TAKE SOME COBWEBS AND SOOT, LIKE I DID YEARS AGO WITH THE BROW, TO STOP THE BLEEDING.
SHE FA' DOWN 'N' BUMP 'ER HEAD.
SHE SHORE DID, SPARKLE.
SHE DON'T HAVE NOTHIN' WITH HER TO TELL US WHO SHE IS. HER SWEATER POCKETS ARE EMPTY.
HEY, GERTRUDE, LOOK— SHE'S OPENED HER EYES.

GASOLINE ALLEY



YOUR LAST AD RUNS THIS WEEK, WALLET. I CAME IN TO SIGN YOU UP FOR SIX MORE.
I'D LIKE TO, MR. QUAD BUT—
YOU TOLD ME YOU'VE HAD RESULTS. CAN YOU AFFORD NOT TO?
WE'LL HAVE TO CUT THE AD SIZE—SAY TO TWO COLUMNS. SIX INCHES DEEP.
FOR AN AMATEUR, YOU WROTE GOOD COPY. IT DESERVES GOOD DISPLAY.
THANKS. WE'RE PLEASED WITH THE RETURNS BUT RIGHT NOW WE'RE CUTTING CORNERS.

LI'L ABNER

LOOK!! DINNER IS SERVED!!
QUIET, MEN— WE'VE GOT HIM!!
SECH INHOOMIN SCREAMS
HMM!!— SOME FELLA LOST EIGHT OF HIS COLLAR-BUTTONS, NINE OF HIS SHOES—AN' THREE SETS OF FALSE TEETH!!

RIP KIRBY

YOU DO ME AN INJUSTICE! I AM NOT HOLDING YOU FOR RANSOM! MISS BANNISTER..BETYA.. HAVE YOU NO HEART? HAVE YOU NO EYES? CAN'T YOU SEE THAT....
BETYA! BETYA! YOU ARE NOT MY PRISONER! I AM YOURS!
NO! NO! LET ME GO!

BRICK BRADFORD

THOSE SHOTS WERE COMING FROM THIS DIRECTION. MIGHTY QUIET NOW, THOUGH— TOO QUIET!
HANKS! HANKS!! YOU THERE!
NOT A SOUND! THAT'S FUNNY! I'LL WHISTLE THE SIGNAL—
NO ANSWER! EVEN ROCCA DIDN'T ANSWER! MY EMERALDS! IF THAT SNEAK IS—

PENNY

I THOUGHT YOU'D BE DOING YOUR HOMEWORK?
OH, I AM, MOTHER.
MISS BIRCH GAVE US A NOVEL TO READ AND WRITE A REPORT ON.
IS IT INTERESTING?
11-9-
WELL, IT'S WHAT THE KIDS CALL A "JUST RIGHT" BIRCH-IF IT WERE ANY LIVLIER SHE WOULDN'T ASSIGN IT.
...AND IF IT WERE ANY DULLER, YOU COULDN'T READ IT.
HAENIGSEN

JIGGS

MY BROTHER BIMMY IS GOING TO CALL ON YOU WHILE I'M OUT- SEE THAT YOU TREAT HIM LIKE A GENTLEMAN ----
ALL HE WANTS IS JUST TO BE TREATED!
HUM-SHE'S GONE! I'M NOT GONNA BE ANNOYED WITH HIM-I'LL GIT OUT ME OLD POLICEMAN'S CLUB AN' CAP THAT DANNY TH' COP GAVE ME "
I'LL JUST PUT 'EM OUT HERE!
OH-OH! I'LL CALL SOME OTHER TIME-

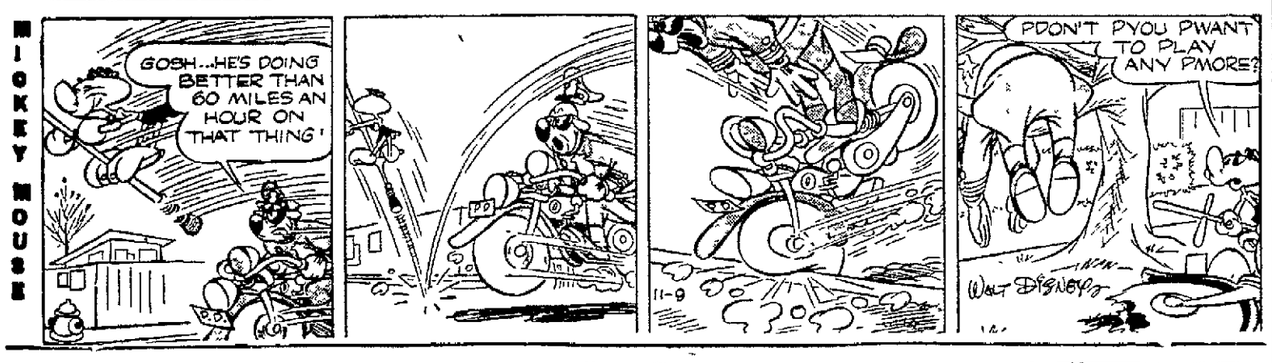
TILLIE

SAY, TILLIE, YOU HAD ME TELLING YOU ALL ABOUT MY PERSONAL AFFAIRS.
SO I DID!
YOU'RE THE ONLY PERSON BESIDES LINA DERL I EVER TOLD THOSE THINGS TO
AND I ONLY TOLD HER BECAUSE SHE'S HYPNOTIC
PERHAPS I'M HYPNOTIC, TOO
WELL YOU'VE BEEN SPENDING A LOT OF TIME WITH LINA-- GOLLY! MAYBE IT'S CATCHING!

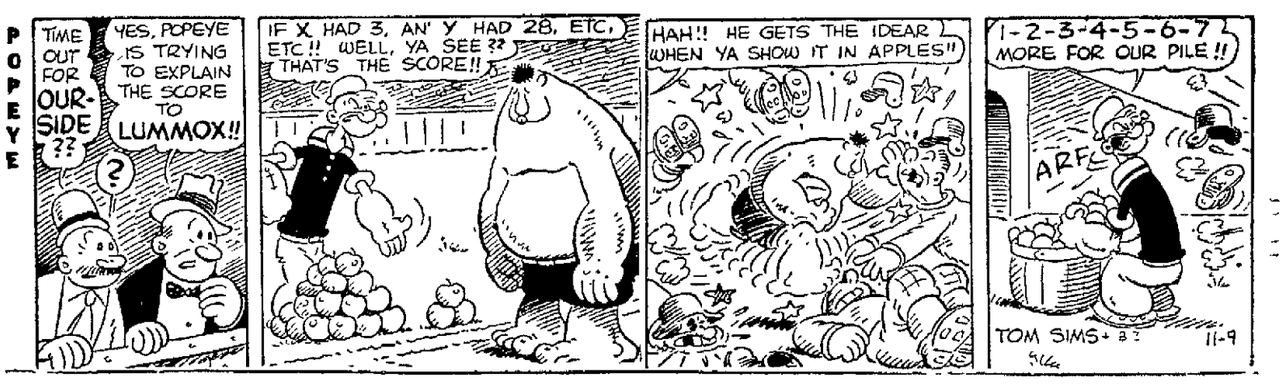
ABBIE AND SLATS

YOU MUST'VE STOWED AWAY, BAD SAM.
RIGHT!!! I LEARNED PLENTY ABOUT FLYIN' FROM READIN' COMIC BOOKS BUT I FIGURED I NEEDED SOME PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE.
IT WAS LUCKY YOU WERE IN THE CONTROL ROOM WHEN THE DOOR ACCIDENTALLY SLAMMED SHUT.
ACCIDENTALLY, MY EYE!! I SLAMMED IT!!! IT WAS MY ONLY CHANCE TO GET AT SOME REAL CONTROLS. THEY DON'T CALL ME BAD SAM FOR NOTHIN'!!!
I'LL TAKE OVER NOW—
JUST TRY AN' GET IN!!!
SLAM!!

MICKEY MOUSE

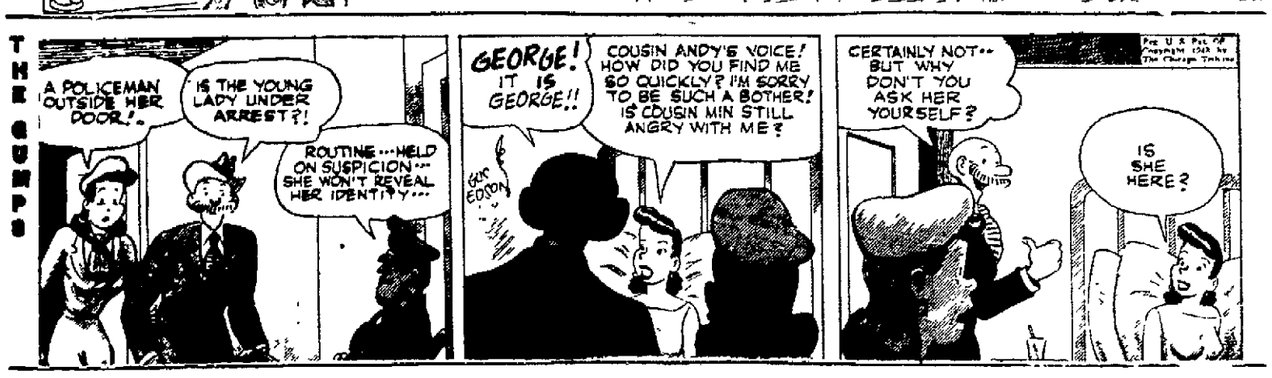


POPEYE



TIME OUT FOR OUR-SIDE ??
YES, POPEYE IS TRYING TO EXPLAIN THE SCORE TO LUMMOX!!
IF X HAD 3, AN' Y HAD 28, ETC, ETC!! WELL, YA SEE?? THAT'S THE SCORE!!
HAH!! HE GETS THE IDEAR WHEN YA SHOW IT IN APPLES!!
1-2-3-4-5-6-7 MORE FOR OUR PILE!!
ARF!
TOM SIMS
11-9

THE GUMPS

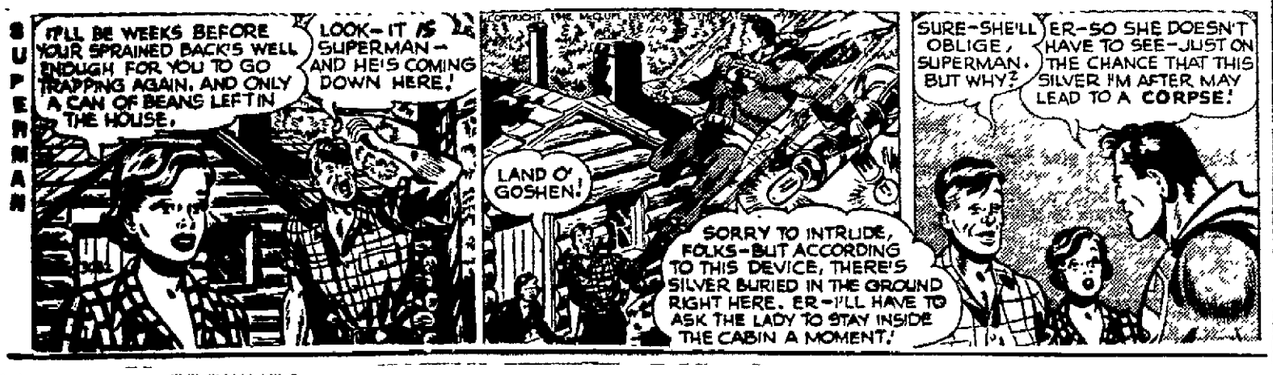


A POLICEMAN OUTSIDE HER DOOR!-
IS THE YOUNG LADY UNDER ARREST?!
ROUTINE...HELD ON SUSPICION... SHE WON'T REVEAL HER IDENTITY...
GEORGE! IT IS GEORGE!!
COUSIN ANDY'S VOICE! HOW DID YOU FIND ME SO QUICKLY? I'M SORRY TO BE SUCH A BOTHER! IS COUSIN MIN STILL ANGRY WITH ME?
CERTAINLY NOT-- BUT WHY DON'T YOU ASK HER YOURSELF?
IS SHE HERE?

THE NEBBS

WE'RE CLOSIN' UP. I KNOW WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND SO SAVE YOUR BREATH
LOOK HERE, MAY-WE MADE AN AGREEMENT
YEAH, TO STOP GIVING EXTRAS WITH OUR BURGERS. WELL, I STOPPED, DIDN'T I?
BUT NOW YOU'RE SERVING BIGGER BURGERS FOR THE SAME MONEY
THAT'S MY PRIVILEGE-WHAT ARE YOU GONNA DO ABOUT IT?
TWO CAN PLAY THE SAME GAME AND I GUESS, I KNOW HOW!
WILBUR NEBB, THIS MEANS WAR!
YOU ASKED FOR IT!
By WEBB

SUPERMAN



IT'LL BE WEEKS BEFORE YOUR SPRAINED BACK'S WELL ENOUGH FOR YOU TO GO TRAPPING AGAIN, AND ONLY A CAN OF BEANS LEFT IN THE HOUSE.
LOOK- IT IS SUPERMAN- AND HE'S COMING DOWN HERE!
LAND O' GOSHEN!
SURE-SHE'LL OBLIGE, SUPERMAN. BUT WHY?
ER-SO SHE DOESN'T HAVE TO SEE-JUST ON THE CHANCE THAT THIS SILVER I'M AFTER MAY LEAD TO A CORPSE!
SORRY TO INTRUDE, FOLKS-BUT ACCORDING TO THIS DEVICE, THERE'S SILVER BURIED IN THE GROUND RIGHT HERE. ER-I'LL HAVE TO ASK THE LADY TO STAY INSIDE THE CABIN A MOMENT.

NANCY

THAT WAS A NICE MEAL, BUT I HAVEN'T ANY MONEY
WELL THEN, YOU'LL HAVE TO WASH THE DISHES
ERNIE BUSHMILLER
I HAVEN'T ANY MONEY, SO I GUESS I'LL JUST HAVE TO WASH THE GLASSES

Lodge Sets Founders' Observance

Moose Members Celebrate Thursday

The annual Founders' day dinner and dance of the Loyal Order of Moose will be held Thursday in the Moose home, beginning with a cocktail hour at 5:30 p. m.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. and at 9 p. m. the ballroom will be turned over to dancing to Bill Leicy's orchestra. Lloyd Hughes is chairman of arrangements for the dance and Fred Harmon for the dinner. During the entertainment hour the "Gold Ball" story will be enacted.

Five hundred are expected to attend the dinner which will be the second family affair of the season.

Sunday afternoon 39 candidates were initiated into the lodge, with the Mansfield degree team exemplifying the degree work under the direction of Paul Grohol. Attorney H. Eugene Ryan spoke on community service. Edmund Pelasky, as lodge governor, presided.

Following initiation and the program a lunch was served and dancing and a floor show were presented during the evening.

Ex-Mansfielder Injured In Fall

A former employe of The News-Journal, John M. "Jack" Clarke, 65, of Lorain, is in "fairly good" condition in a Lorain hospital after suffering a fracture of his right hip in a fall.

Clarke, national advertising manager for the Lorain Journal, was injured when he slipped on a sidewalk in Lorain Friday afternoon.

BODY FOUND IN BAY

Girls' Club To See Show

Employed girls club members of the YWCA have been looking forward for months to seeing "Carousel." Saturday their dream will come true when they board a chartered bus at the 'Y' at 1 p. m. and drive to Columbus for the show and dinner.

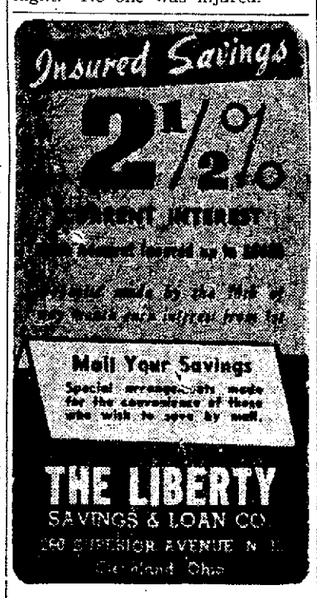
They will be accompanied by Miss Dorothy Hainer, business and industrial girls' secretary, and probably Miss Ann Knapp, young girls' secretary of the association.

Tickets for the party are still available, Miss Hainer said.

Wednesday at 6 p. m. members of this club will meet at the 'Y' for a dinner at 6 p. m., to be planned on the international theme. Mrs. David Reed, a French war bride in Mansfield, will be the speaker for the evening. Miss Hainer is asking that reservations for the dinner be in by Wednesday noon.

20 CARS DERAILED

STEUBENVILLE—(AP)—A thousand laborers worked over the weekend to clear the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad following derailment of 20 freight cars near Mingo Junction Saturday night. No one was injured.



Granges Confer Ritual Degrees

TIRO — The Crawford county Subordinate Granges are doing degree work this week when the first and second degrees of ritualism were given last night by the Whetstone and Mt. Zion Granges at a meeting held at the Holmes-Liberty school. Whetstone Grange gave the first degree and Mt. Zion the second.

Thursday night Edgewood Grange of Tiro will give the third degree and North Robinson the fourth degree at a meeting at Mt. Zion. The Leesville, Mt. Zion, North Robinson, and Whetstone Granges will be the entertaining Granges.

The fifth or Pomona Degree will be given at the Pomona Grange meeting at Sulphur Springs, Nov. 23.

Men Singers Begin Selling Tickets

Quartets to Give Simultaneous Shows

Tickets went on sale today for the "Harvest of Harmony," to be presented Dec. 4 by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

John Whitcomb, in charge of tickets, said the ducats are being distributed to members of the society, who will sell them.

Because of the large crowd expected for the event, it is being staged in two auditoriums at once—in Senior High and John Simpson school auditoriums.

Only one night could be given over to the affair due to the great distance some of the quartets must travel in coming to Mansfield.

The participating quartets will shift from one auditorium to the other.

In all, 10 quartets will participate in the singing of songs of "the good old days," said Ralph Hughes, secretary of the Mansfield chapter.

Booked for the event are the "Pittsburghgers," the 1947-48 Ohio and southwestern Pennsylvania champions; the "Buzz Saws," of Columbus, and the 1946-47 district champions, "The Tomcats" of Massillon.

WILL DEMAND RAISE

BOSTON — (AP) — The Textile Workers Union of America, CIO, will demand a general wage increase of ten cents an hour for its 90,000 members in the woolen and worsted industry, union President Emil Rieve has announced.

Financial Dealings of Two More Congressmen Questioned

A. F. of L. Would Deny Seats to 2

Claim Ferguson, Chrysler Tie-up

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The AFL's Political League demanded today that two Republican congressmen be denied seats in the new congress pending an FBI investigation of their financial dealings.

It named Sen. Homer Ferguson, R., Mich., and Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski, R., Wis.

The AFL political branch said charges against O'Konski, recently published by a Madison, Wis., newspaper "were almost the same as the charges against Congressman J. Parnell Thomas." It did not elaborate.

Thomas, chairman of the House unAmerican activities committee, was indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday on charges of conspiring to defraud the government through payroll-padding.

The league said Ferguson, chairman of the Senate's top investigating committee, should be denied a seat in the new Congress until the FBI looks into charges that his family benefitted from certain "Complicated" transactions with the Chrysler Corporation.

These allegations, aired by Columnist Drew Pearson and by Sen. Elmer Thomas, D., Okla., have brought staunch denials from Ferguson.

On Capitol Hill, meanwhile, Sen. Francis J. Myers, D., Pa., promised there would be "no whitewash" of Democrats involved in alleged election fraud cases when the party takes over in January. Myers is expected to head the Senate elections subcommittee which is investigating the Texas and Oklahoma Democratic primaries and the 1946 election of Democratic Sen. Harley M. Kilgore of West Virginia.

"We have an obligation to perform, said Myers, who is the only Democrat on the present three-man elections subcommittee. "If the subcommittee's final report indicates fraud or serious irregularities, certainly we'll look into them."

The subcommittee, now headed by Sen. William E. Jenner, R., Ind., voted yesterday to keep on "investigating and collating information" in the Texas, Oklahoma and West Virginia cases for a final report to the new Democratic - controlled subcommittee. However, it voted not to begin hearings until after the new Congress comes in.

A-Bomb Will Use Up Uranium Supply In 30 Years, Claim

CHICAGO —(INS)— A leading American industrial chemist said today that the present rate of atom bomb production threatens to exhaust our known uranium reserves within 30 years.

He is Eugene Ayers, chief chemist of the Gulf Research and Development company, of Pittsburgh.

Ayers, in Chicago for the American Petroleum Institute, added that because of our limited supplies of fissionable material atomic energy as now understood cannot be regarded as the predominant energy source of the future.

Ayers added:

"If uranium were used to produce as much energy as petroleum it would become a very rapidly vanishing resource."

Ayers pointed out that the world supply of recoverable uranium is believed to be about 10 times as great as that in the United States. Thorium, another fissionable element that might produce industrial power, is present in about similar quantity.

Ayers said if the present rate of production of atom bombs continues, we will not only exhaust all sources of uranium but that there is little possibility of extending our uranium reserves of large discoveries.

Ayers also predicted that heat and light from the sun, captured and stored on the deserts, would be the great source of energy in the future.

Other available resources are waterfalls, the earth's heat, vegetation, tropical water, tides, atmospheric electricity, wind and heat pumps now being used in Europe.

The heat pumps, with coils buried in deep water or below the frost line in the earth, work on a principle similar to a home refrigerator to produce heat.

Returning to a discussion of uranium, the well-known chemist said:

"The much-talked about 'atomic age' is limited in itself because of the comparative rarity of the two sources—uranium and thorium.

"Atomic disintegration has sometimes been regarded as a source of practically inexhaustible energy. This is not true. It is estimated that our uranium reserves will not last any longer than our petroleum reserves."

Zinc Strike 'Cools Off' With Truce

Union, Company Meet Tonight

COLUMBUS — (AP) — A four-month strike of CIO smelter workers at the American Zinc Oxide company came to a truce today after almost reaching the point of police intervention.

Under an agreement reached between officials of the union local and the company, the workers will meet tonight to consider settlement proposals. The nature of the proposals was withheld.

Company officials agreed further not to attempt to reopen the plant today. Their effort to do so yesterday resulted in massing of about 30 pickets at the plant gate.

Sheriff Ralph J. Paul attempted to disperse them by reading the riot act and threatened to arrest them if they did not leave the vicinity in an hour.

They did not leave and Sheriff Paul made no arrests. He said he did not want to risk having somebody hurt and that he would not act unless the company got an injunction against mass picketing.

The company asked Common Pleas court late in the day for an order restraining the union to "peaceful picketing" and calling for removal of the picket line headquarters, a tent near the plant gate.

Judge Charles A. Leach withheld action pending the outcome of last night's meeting.

The company contended that the main issue in the strike is its insistence on signing non-communist affidavits by the union's international officers. Ralph C. Perkins, industrial relations director, said the company handled "a considerable amount of work for the armed forces, and we simply cannot accept a union when there is a serious question as to the loyalty of some of its international officers."

Ralph Locke, an international representative of the union, said the union wanted a pay increase of about 12 cents an hour and improved working conditions.

Farm Prices Starting Down

Despite the greatest farm harvest in American history, the farmer's purchasing power is being reduced by the lower prices that he receives for his crops, reports the Production and Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The Oct. 15 index of prices is down 13 points or four per cent from Sept. 15. Specific items are meat, down 13 points, or nine per cent, from last month, feed grains down 44 points, fruit down five points, and poultry down six points.

At the same time, announced the Department of Agriculture, the products of industry which the farmer must buy have decreased very little, if any. Some items, such as farm machinery, have recently increased.

City Cozy, West Cold

Mansfielders continued to enjoy mild fall weather today while the first big snowstorm of the season left a white blanket over the western states

The mercury dropped to 10 degrees below zero in some parts of Wyoming as a three-to-six-inch fall of snow covered the state. All the Great Plains states as far as western Oklahoma, reported lower temperatures, but no snow.

The weather bureau said occasional rains would fall throughout the state today but temperatures will remain mild, becoming cooler in the west portion tonight Tomorrow will be cooler with occasional rains

Five-day extended weather forecast Temperature will average near normal. Cooler Wednesday, somewhat warmer Friday, cooler over the week end Rain Wednesday and about Friday, with total amount about one-third inch.

Sentence Suspended

Frederick Martin, of East Toledo, R D 1, was given a suspended sentence in the Columbus Workhouse yesterday in juvenile court on his plea of guilty to non-support of his two children since Sept 7.

The suspension was ordered on condition he pay $15 per week for the children's support

Samuel Myers, 16, of 461 Van Buren street, accused of driving a car without an operator's license was fined $10 and costs by Acting Juvenile Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch. The fine was suspended on condition of good behavior.

'Y' Secretary Tells of Work With Children In Chicago

His work as an undercover agent for the department of welfare in the Chicago slums was discussed by Maurice Taylor, Mansfield YMCA secretary, at the luncheon meeting yesterday of the Exchange club William Calhoun served as program chairman

"As an undercover man I had complete immunity from the police and even the FBI," Taylor said. "Anything that I learned, and I learned plenty, belonged to the department of welfare alone, for we were trying to help these slum kids and not put them in jail."

Using an alias, Taylor got a job as a park employe, and moved into the slum district with his family. Gaining the confidence of the people, Taylor got an insight into their problems

"I even became a confident of some of the 'jobs' pulled," said Taylor, "and once when one of these jobs was thwarted by the police, I came under the suspicion of the gang for a short while, as the 'finger man' or 'squealer,' which I wasn't of course, as far as the law enforcement part of it went"

"Every community has a certain amount of juvenile delinquency," Taylor said, "and if we are going to show the world how democracy works, then we should try to bring up our children as good citizens.

"To do that we must not only have the material facilities with which to work, but we must also have an organized program and objective, and above all, we as adults must strive to be a good example for the kids to follow," he said

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR MANSFIELD, OHIO, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1948

Anyhow it is now assured that the 1948 election will go down in history as an event which will tend to restrain any future display of overconfidence.

The Russians seem just as confused over our election results as are many of the home folks—as they were quite confident that Wallace was also a "sure winner."

In Lansing, Mich., yesterday, members of the Optimist club were handing out dimes to everyone on the street wearing a smile and Democrats are said to have cashed in heavily.

Financial Problems Puzzle Council

LACKING sufficient money for reasonable upkeep of municipal services and ordinarily expected improvements, Mansfield city council is now confronted with the problem of meeting the increased operating costs involved in pay raises for members of the police and fire departments, as ordered by voters at last week's election. It seems fair to assume that commensurate salary and wage increases will be extended to employes in other departments, for the same reasons that apply in the two departments covered by the initiated ordinance approved by a majority of voters.

Fully endorsing the idea that present inflated living costs justify salary and wage increases for municipal employes, it cannot be disregarded that sufficient money to pay these increases and also care for the maintenance and betterment of other public services must be provided by taxpayers.

This reminder is given so that no voice of complaint will be raised when council takes action to get the extra money that will be needed to pay the higher costs of operating Mansfield's public business.

Approved Pension Plan Hits Snag

WHY SURE, Oregon voters last week gave enthusiastic approval to a proposal that the state adopt a $50 a month old-age pension plan, to be paid regardless of the recipient's need.

Of course that was a considerable comedown from the $200-a-month idea of Townsendites—but anyhow it would be a start, and why should anyone object?

But it appears that some did object—bonding companies, for instance, which immediately withdrew bids on $2,000,000 in state bonds, with one investment expert saying: "The state is a poor risk. It's darned near insolvent."

It was quite a shock to Oregonians to discover that the approved pension plan might cost as much as $9,000,000 a month—three times what the state now spends on all its activities. No provision was made to finance the pensions—why worry about a little thing like that!

Meanwhile the Oregon public welfare commission has announced that it will send out no more old-age assistance checks until the new law is clarified.

This occurrence is remindful of the congressman who explained his popularity by saying that he regularly voted for all appropriations and against all taxes.

'Kickback' Charges Bring Indictment

WHILE a grand jury indictment of a person suspected of a crime should not be mistaken for proof of guilt, readers of Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round column have become so familiar with alleged misconduct of J. Parnell Thomas, New Jersey Republican congressman, that they are not surprised by the indictment of Thomas on the "kickback" charges to which Pearson has made frequent reference.

The important position which Thomas holds as chairman of the House un-American activities committee places him in an extremely awkward situation, as proof of guilt would show him to be running counter to the very things his committee has been seeking to disclose—un-Americanism.

Action by the justice department, followed by the grand jury indictments returned yesterday against Thomas, climaxes what is regarded as one of the most important pieces of newspaper reporting of the year.

It was on August 4 that Drew Pearson first revealed that Thomas had received salary kickbacks from three different women over a period beginning Jan. 1, 1940, and this was followed by recital of incident after incident showing "kickback" methods employed by Thomas, some of which provided the basis for FBI investigation and grand jury action.

China Lacks Financial Stability

THERE is sound reason for fear that the Chinese government may have abandoned more of financial policy than just the effort to control prices when it recently announced lifting of wage restrictions and most price controls.

The restrictions removed were those which were set up at the time the new gold yuan was placed in circulation last August. The question which immediately comes to mind is whether the government has also abandoned the attempt to stabilize the currency.

No indications have been reported, as yet, that the government again has taken to grinding out printing press money to meet its own expenses. If it does so, the new gold yuan is doomed. It will be swallowed up in galloping inflation, as was the currency that preceded it.

If the Chinese government had the means to continue supporting its currency on a sound basis while allowing prices and exchange to find a natural level, stability might be won. No informed observer believes it has such resources immediately available.

In case you have overlooked previous mention, this is National Cat week—and all birds will please take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Claude Callan suggests: "It is best for daughter to have a quiet wedding—then dad may be able to get it paid for before she wants a divorce."

Still left for analysis by experts is the subject of how much effect Dewey's mustache may have had in losing votes.

A defender of the once popular tattoo process contends that in this form "art is brought closest to the people."

Duck Dinner Indefinitely Postponed.

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Economic Factors In National Outlook

THE SHARP post-election break in the stock exchange merely reflected the surprise and consternation felt in all business circles. The first breathless question, heard on all sides, "What happened?" was followed by another, more practical one, "What will happen?"

It would be foolish optimism to gather together a few scraps of reassurance and ignore the larger items of business uncertainty that must prevail for some weeks. We might as well face it. A Dewey victory would have been good for business, at least for the immediate, foreseeable future.

Truman's election was a victory for a continuation of government management of our economy.

If he seeks to reward the farmers who turned to him and the workers who elected Democratic congressmen, his course will be somewhat inflationary. There is much that he can do alone in that direction, and much that he can ask Congress to do.

But neither Truman's popular majority, his cloudy mandate nor the moderate Democratic majority in Congress justify a belief that he can have his way with legislation. Whatever he gets will be by compromise and long negotiation. This Congress, like those of the past few years, has no taste for revolution. The South and the Republicans will stand against a wider growth of government control.

Moreover, as far as the inflation picture is concerned, natural forces are operating. The great boom is flattening out. This cannot continue without breaks in some business lines and a distinct danger of slowly falling employment and business volume. A rapid decline will be fairly effectively slowed down by executive action, for above all Truman is committed to the maintenance of prosperity.

* * *

Considering the Budget

THE BUDGET picture will, despite a continued high rate of spending, be a powerful argument against increased taxes — even against a partial restoration of excess profits taxes.

In the fiscal year ending last June, we had a total tax income of $48,000,000,000. This was cut by the Republican tax reduction to $43,000,000,000. The highest forecasts for the forthcoming budget for next year are about $44,000,000,000.

It is already certain, however, that the national income in the second half of the calendar year 1948 will be 10 per cent higher than a year ago. The income which will yield taxes for the fiscal year 1950 will be, in the main, the income earned in the present fiscal year 1949. Hence, we may well anticipate a federal tax income for the next fiscal year of $48,000,000,000 or more. This would seem to preclude any tax increase.

It would, in fact, provide a margin for debt reduction, but it will also be pointed out, with some show of justification, that the burden of the national debt is relatively not much higher than it was in 1939.

In that year, the national income was a little more than $70,000,000,000, and the interest on the debt was about 1.3 per cent of that income. Now, the interest on the national debt is not over 2 per cent of the national income. To reduce the debt by increasing taxes would be resisted by Congress as dangerously deflationary, especially in the face of a flattening boom.

In light of these natural forces, it is therefore more likely that Truman will put full-employment measures ahead of price controls. This would be a degree of good news for business.

The Nation Today

Future of the Parties

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON —The Republicans are in a sick spot for a party that wants to make a come-back.

But it isn't a one-sided picture. The Democrats could boot away the advantage they have now. They could do it in the next four years.

Take a look at the Democrats' problems first, then at the Republicans'.

The Democrats—

Now the President has a Democratic Congress, which is what he asked for, to help him carry out his campaign promises.

If those promises are not kept, because his Democrats split up or otherwise block him, the fed-up voters may call back the Republicans to take over Congress in 1950 or the presidency and Congress in 1952.

Or President Truman, no matter how well he and Congress keep promises, might blunder in other fields so improtant the voters might turn to the Republicans in 1950 or 1952.

And what of a third party in 1952, one that could capture enough votes from the Democrats to let the Republicans breeze in?

Henry Wallace's Progressive party got so badly beaten this year that it doesn't look like a threat, even if it stays alive.

But before this election, when it seemed certain the Republicans would win, some labor leaders talked of creating a big labor party to run in 1952. If that happened, it might tear the Democrats to pieces.

* * *

Watchful Waiting.

NOW that Mr. Truman has won, such a party may not be formed. But labor will decide that as it watches events in the next four years.

Then there's the problem of the southern Democrats. Their States' Rights party captured four states from Mr. Truman this year.

They formed that party because they were sore about the President's civil rights program for southern Negroes. If Mr. Truman now rams it through, and embitters the South, no one can tell what southern Democrats will do four years from now.

Anyway, any big split that would walk off with otherwise Democratic votes would open the door wide for the Republicans' return.

The Republicans—

What are they going to do about helping Mr. Truman—or blocking him—in carrying out the promises on which he was elected?

If they block him, the voters may be so furious in 1950 or 1952 that they'll swamp the Republicans, if not destroy them altogether.

Yet, suppose the Republicans go along with Mr. Truman. In the eyes of the voters would that make them simply a "Me, Too," party, one with no claim to leadership?

But how can they take the lead in Congress where the Democrats are in the majority—if the Democrats stick together—and Mr. Truman's program is waiting to be carried out.

The voters have shown in every election since 1932, except in 1946 when they elected a Republican Congress, that they prefer Democratic leadership.

In the two years since 1946, the voters have seen the Republicans block Mr. Truman all over the place. So the voters threw the Republicans out of control.

That means that for 16 years now the voters have identified themselves with the Democrats.

Governor Dewey himself was quoted a few weeks before election as having said that the people in this country have been educated to vote Democratic.

That education began with the election of President Roosevelt in 1932. The New York Times says there is a "Roosevelt generation of 45,000,000 out of 95,000,000 voters."

Some Who 'Won't Be There Any More'

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Don't underestimate the intelligence of the American voter when it comes to focusing on the congressmen who worked for the lobbies and the pocketbook rather than for the public. Close scrutiny of the election returns show that the voters used squirrel rifles, not shotguns. They picked their congressmen carefully, and their aim was deadly.

Here is the voters' list of those who never will be missed:

W. J. Miller, Conn.—Introduced two bills taking the heart out of the Federal Power Commission. Brazenly stationed two lawyers from Connecticut Light and Power at his elbow during the hearings. It was obvious they had much to do with writing the bills. Now he's defeated.

Forrest Harness, Ind. — When newsmen exposed Miller's operations for the power lobby, Harness started an investigation of government propaganda; thunderously accused the government of lobbying for health, housing and reclamation. He pushed passage of rider refusing appropriation for Reclamation Commissioner Mike Strauss for alleged propaganda, but meanwhile let the real estate and medical lobbies tell him what to do. Now Harness is defeated.

Harold Knutson, Minn.—He let Wall Street tax experts sit on a private committee without public hearings and drew up the new tax bill; refused labor representatives an equal chance to present their case. Minnesota voters got wise and Harold won't be with us any more.

Bud Gearhart, Calif.—At first refused to hold hearings on reciprocal trade treaties. Later held brief, secret hearings and reported out bill emasculating reciprocal trade. The Senate rectified part of his unfairness. Now he's defeated.

Charles Fletcher, Calif.—One of real estate lobby's best friends on banking and currency committee. Voted against rent control, public housing and for the real estate lobby right down the line. Meanwhile, his own savings and loan firm in San Diego has been investigated for a real estate transaction. He won't be with us any more.

Charles Kersten, Wis. — Failed to pay his state income taxes for three years. Made out a false report for his 1946 campaign expenditures in violation of federal Corrupt Practices Act.

Robert Rockwell, Colo.—A rock in the path of progress. Did more for the power lobby than for the people of Colorado. Though wealthy, was not above using taxpayers' money to pay local political leader to help in his campaign.

John McDowell, Pa. — No. 2 member of the un-American activities committee. Participated in various smears.

Richard Vail, Ill. — Because of his tough re-election fight, other members of the un-American activities committee let him become spokesman so as to give him more publicity. The extra publicity apparently helped defeat him.

Fred Busbey, Ill. — Sometimes called the Chicago Tribune's "busboy," he voted with the big lobbies on almost everything.

John J. Riley, S. C.—A member of the real estate lobby, he voted against public housing. South Carolina voters didn't wait for November, but retired him in the primaries.

Horace Seely-Brown, Conn.—Only five congressmen opposed higher education allowances for war vets, but he was one of them.

Howard Buffett, Neb. — A bedrock reactionary who shot off his mouth once too often.

Frank Sundstrom, N. J. — Another free vote for the big lobbies.

Charles Clason, Mass.—A party hack. Tried to buy off home-town labor with special favors but voted against labor on national issues.

Harold Youngblood, Mich. — A weak-kneed conservative. Voted against rent control though his constituents in Detroit are hard up for rental space.

Max Schwabe, Mo. — Threw all his bulky weight against the Marshall Plan and a decent minimum wage for workers because he said it would gain him votes in his farm district. He was wrong.

* * *

Defeated the DuPonts.

THE plain folks of Delaware have selected one of their own numbers to represent them in the U. S. Senate. He is a typical small-town businessman, J. Allen Frear, jr., who sells milk and coal but never before ran for public office.

His victory was a humiliating blow to the duPont family, whose son-in-law, Senator C. Douglass Buck, had upheld big business in the Senate.

The Republicans were cocksure of winning, but in the end the duPonts' big man lost to the Democrats' little man, Frear—even though Dewey carried the state.

Popular in his home community, Frear was singled out by the Dover Junior Chamber of Commerce last year as the town's most outstanding citizen. He has been a leader in civic affairs, but inconspicuous outside the radius of his home town. In appearance, he looks something like a friendly crossroads storekeeper — short, stocky, quiet, unassuming.

Frear will bring to the Senate a conscientious will to do right and an interest in small business and agriculture. He still stays close to the farm where he was brought up—in Rising Sun, Md.

When he gets to the Senate, he would also like to work for social security benefits for farmers, special tax exemptions for small business men, and in his spare time—add to his collection of automatic pencils.

Shift In the Farm Vote

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — A significant factor in the leection has been overlooked or too little emphasized. It has additional interest because of its possible influence on the future shape of the Democratic party and upon future Republican policy.

This is the surprising strength shown by President Truman in midwest farm territory. It had been taken for granted generally that this area was still staunchly Republican, that is, taken for granted by all but a few which included a fellow named Harry S. Truman and his secretary of agriculture, Charles F. Brannan.

This Democratic farm strength was really the big "sleeper" in this amazing election. It provided the margin of victory.

It was responsible for the President carrying Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa with their decisive total of 75 electoral votes, all of which had been assigned beforehand by the polls to Governor Dewey.

Their loss would have cut the President's total from 304 to 229 electoral votes, considerably short of the necessary 266. In his column they far more than offset the loss of four southern states to the Dixiecrats and fell just short of offsetting the combined electoral total of the four southern states and New York, which is 85.

Farm support also increased President Truman's total in Minnesota, which the polls had given to him, and it was a threat to Republicans even in South Dakota, which Governor Dewey carried this year by only 10,000 votes as compared with his 38,000 majority in 1944 against President Roosevelt. The President also did surprisingly well in Kansas and North Dakota.

* * *

Farmers Were Worried

THE big shock, of course, was when rock-ribbed Republican Iowa went for Harry Truman. He carried it by 34,000 votes as compared with Governor Dewey's 37,000 majority four years ago, quite a spread. Something had happened in the farm belt. How come?

Farmers were restive and disturbed. The reasons were acts of both omission and commission by that 80th Republican Congress to which President Truman so often referred and in speeches to farmers very specifically — and the fear that they might lose present price supports under a Republican administration. Governor Dewey's pledge of continued price supports had been vague and general. Farmers wanted to know for sure.

All of this was dramatized for unknowing easterners through those long hours Tuesday night when Republican managers buoyed their flagging spirits by saying "Wait until the rural vote comes in." When it came in President Truman still maintained his lead. Nearly everybody was puzzled.

But not Secretary of Agriculture Brannan. He knew about the worry among farmers. He told President Truman six weeks before the election that he would get surprising farm support from the midwest. The secretary did something about it. Day after day he made campaign speeches—visiting 13 states in all. President Truman did something about it, too. He stumped the midwest earnestly and patiently. Many people thought he was wasting his time.

He touched on their grievances. Naturally farmers were very much concerned about agricultural aid programs to which Democrats were committed firmly, but about which Republicans were vague.

The pattern of the Truman election victory suggests a return to that of the very early Roosevelt years when midwest farmers contributed handsomely along with labor and the Solid South.

Farm area recruits could offset defection in the South, which might continue either through such splinter movements as the Dixiecrats or through increasing Republican strength in that area, as well as offset losses in the East such as New York and Pennsylvania in this year's election.

Indian Summer Weather

By CALVIN A. BYERS

A SONGSPARROW sings as if spring were near at hand. The frost is white underfoot, but the early large ball of sun promises another mild day. The weeping willow by the pond is a flaming yellow. Beneath it the late-blooming water lilies spangle the slow moving water.

To the south and east tall naked trees make shafts of vivid shade. Milkweed pods, drenched by days of rain, burst their bounds and send winged seeds afloat. Gradually the woodland begins to stand in zones of soft blue haze. A warm wind from the south is rich with sweet growing odors. The early tender wheat spreads its rich young greenness over most of the valley floor.

It is too nice to stay indoors. It is too warm to make a fire. An old man and his wife go out into the dazzling sunshine to finish husking the corn in their small patch. They are laughing together and their faces are cheerfully wrinkled from many years of companionship.

His coat is threadbare and her shawl is ragged but it is pleasant to see him look at her and her at him. There is a kind of exuberance that defies mere words.

Heaps of yellow ears lie beside the fodder shocks, in the one long row. Today they will finish the rest of the unhusked corn. They will haul in the last of the ears with their wagon and team. Long strands of web rise and fall with the pressure of the air, glimmering in the amber light. All the world, earth, air and sky seems in perfect balance.

There is completeness in the warmth that lets a man stretch both hands and heart to share the beauty of the aged summer. It is the last for which the first was made. The final garnering in of the late harvest. And aged beauty is always more to be desired and shared than that of youth, for it has the richness of all the summer in it.

The gayety of Indian summer is real, but gentle and more soothing than the riot of autumn, the heat of summer, or even the burgeoning of springtime. It stops every passer, bids him pause and savor the goodness of all the earth, and carry away a blessing.

Says Full Vote Gave Dems Win

Claims Election An FDR Victory

As one who did not foresee the result of the election I can say as of the morning after, that I went wrong because I did not expect the Democrats to bring out their full vote. There was never any doubt that in this political generation there are more Democrats than Republicans, that the Democrats are the majority party, and that the Republicans could win only if the Democrats refused to support the regular Democratic ticket.

That is what all of us who went wrong thought was happening: that Dewey would win decisively, not because he had a popular majority but because the Democrats could not or would not bring out their majority. We thought that the Democrats who turned to Wallace and the Democrats who turned to Thurmond, and the Democrats who, we supposed, would stay at home in large numbers, would decide the election.

It is now clear, though few believed it likely, that the Democrats did not stay away from the polls, that the party organization in all the states brought out the full Democratic vote. The Democratic protest vote against Truman was confined to those who actually voted for Wallace and Thurmond. There was not, as I for one had expected, a protest which took the form of a refusal of Democratic voters to vote at all.

Thus the coalition, which Franklin Roosevelt formed, held together and has prevailed once again. It can be said with much justice, and without detracting from Mr. Truman's remarkable personal performance, that of all Roosevelt's electoral triumphs, this one in 1948 is the most impressive. For it was the Democratic party as Roosevelt transformed it and developed it which won this surprising victory.

The real strength of the Roosevelt Democracy has manifested itself unmistakably. Mr. Truman's campaign was an outright adoption of the Roosevelt tradition and the Roosevelt political strategy. The Democratic Governors, Senators, and Representatives who upset all the predictions were conspicuously Roosevelt Democrats both on domestic and on foreign questions, notably Bowles in Connecticut, Stevenson and Douglas in Illinois, Humphries in Minnesota, Kefauver in Tennessee. The Republicans who were so unexpectedly defeated in the pivotal states were, almost without exception, identified as the opponents of what Roosevelt stood for, as reactionaries and as isolationists.

★

In retrospect I think it must now be said that though the Vinson affair was incredibly inept, nevertheless it proved to be a net gain for Truman. I think he gained strength and reunited many discontented Democrats, by showing that he shared their dissatisfaction with the way things were being handled in the State Department and the Pentagon.

MARY WASHINGTON, DAR, HEARS MRS. JOHN COTTEN

"Approved Schools," Topic of Program at Avery Hand Home.

MRS. JOHN COTTEN of Cuyahoga Falls was the guest speaker for members of the Mary Washington chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Monday at the home of Mrs. Avery Hand, 619 Austin road. Associate hostesses were Mrs. P. B. Dietrichson, Mrs. John Fisher and Mrs. Harro Woltmann. Thirty-five were in attendance, including Mrs. Cotten and Miss Clara Fisher of Ashtabula, a house guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Herring, 419 West Third street.

Mrs. Cotten spoke to the group on "Approved Schools," giving an interesting resume of the background of 12 approved schools and two DAR supported colleges in Tennessee and Alabama.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock at small tables which were centered with dainty bouquets of pastel flowers.

Mrs. David Feiser, regent, conducted the business session, at which time she commented on the significance of national Education week. A tribute was read as a memorial to Mrs. Jay Palmer, a past regent of the Mary Washington chapter

On Dec. 13 the group will meet in regular session with Mrs. Charles Fox, Mrs. Allen Bond, Mrs. Ernest G. Hesser and Mrs. George Mead as hostesses.

The chapter will hold a rummage sale at 262 North Main street on Nov 17.

Mrs. Melchert Speaks To Study Group

Mrs. J. C. Melchert was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Child Guidance club Monday evening at the home of Mrs. S. C. Kiser, Abbeyfeale road. She used as her topic, "Child Training in Religion."

She stated that home is the strongest influence in the life of the child and he responds to the code of the home. "He needs both a mother and father in that home," she said, "and divorce creates problems rather than solves them."

At the close of the program refreshments were served buffet style. There will be a Thanksgiving party for children of the members on Nov. 20 at Prospect park pavilion at 3 o'clock.

Th next regular meeting of the club will be held Nov. 22 with Mrs. Paul Ackerman, 536 Harter avenue.

Amvet Auxiliary Has Benefit Party

Two hundred persons attended the Amvet clubhouse, on west Fourth street road, last night, when the Amvet auxiliary held its benefit card party.

Mrs. Ernest Yoakum was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Mary Dunn, Mrs. William Herrick, Mrs. C. J. Kalbfleisch, Mrs. William Warden and Mrs Martin Pahls.

The grand prize of the evening was won by Mrs. Floyd Adams, and other prizes were awarded to Mrs. Don Kirpatrick, Mrs. Charles Price, Mrs. Jerry Demt, Mrs. Robert Bonham, Mrs Russell Zimmerman, Mrs. Karl Bechtel, Mrs Ralph Damlos, Mrs. George Conant, Mrs. Joe Rizzo, Mrs Miller Groscost, Mrs Adams, Mrs. Robert Haag, Forest Dougherty, John Fusco, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Harold Gutekunst, Mrs. Lloyd Maxwell, Mrs. Robert Sneeringer, Mrs. John Floyd and Mrs. Fannie Sloane.

The men will sponsor a semiformal dance for the auxiliary Nov. 20, at the clubhouse.

Vows Spoken In Methodist Parsonage

Miss Wilma Maxine Foutz, daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Foutz, Uhrichsville, Ohio, became the bride of Doyle Chrest, Uhrichsville, Monday at 2:30 p. m. at a quiet ceremony in the Central Methodist church parsonage. The Rev. J. F. Stewart officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a green suit with grey accessories Her corsage was of white gardenias

Mrs. John Chrest, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served as matron of honor. She wore a green suit with grey accessories with a corsage like the bride's.

The bride's mother chose a print dress with a white carnation for her daughter's wedding

John Chrest, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon through the western states.

The bride and bridegroom both graduated from the Uhrichsville high school.

Epsilon Tau Fetes Pledges At Tea

Members of Epsilon Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, feted their pledges Nov. 7 with a preferential tea from 2 to 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Theo Brown, 411 South Main street. Miss Betty Keller, membership chairman, and her committee, assisted with arrangements.

Young women honored were Miss Ruth Mains, Miss Ann Sickmiller, Mrs. Thor Baumgardner and Mrs. Charles Grant. One guest, Miss Shirley Bauer, a past-president, who is a student at Ohio university, was in attendance.

Miss Betty Pagnard, favored with four vocal numbers, "If I Could Tell You," "I Love Thee," "Always" and "The Pine," accompanied by Mrs. William Hazeltine.

Mrs. Frank Hoffer and Miss Dorothy Tahsler presided at the serving table which was dainty with a centerpiece of yellow roses, the sorority flower, and appointments in the sorority colors, yellow and black.

The next meeting of the group will be held Thursday of this week for a business session in the clubrooms, Southern Hotel.

Members of the sorority and their guests held a Halloween party recently at the Scout cabin, near Bellville. Twenty-five were present. Games and dancing were the diversion. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phipps received the prize for the best-dressed couple in costume. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Auxiliary Honors Mrs. Carl Kahl

The American Legion auxiliary, Earle D. McVey Unit 16, met at the Legion home last night with the president, Mrs. Dwight A. McCullough, presiding.

Miss Marie Kalbfleisch, fifth district president, gave a report on the national convention at Miami, Fla Mrs John Fuller reported 40 new members in the membership campaign which began Oct. 1

Memorial services were conducted for the late Mrs Carl Kahl by Mrs. Walter Beckley, state department chaplain. Taps were played by Howard Neuman. The charter was draped by Mrs. Emma Young, unit chaplain.

Members voted that the furniture to be purchased by the unit for the boys' living room at the Children's Home be given in memory of Mrs. Kahl.

It was announced that auxiliary members will meet Armistice day, Nov. 11, at 10:30 a m. at the Legion home to march to Central park to place a wreath honoring those who died in defense of our country.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 22, honoring Mrs. Beckley, recently appointed state department chaplain, and Miss Kalbfleisch, fifth district president Hostesses will be Mrs Frank Duff and Mrs B A. Wehinger and their committee.

Committee Plans Events

The Child Care and Training committee, Women of the Moose, met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Dan Naggle, 40 Wolfe avenue. Mrs Margaret Ritchie was the associate hostess Sixteen members and one guest, Mrs Michael Campanelli, senior regent, were present.

Mrs. Anton Schweitzer, committee chairman, conducted the business meeting, at which time plans were made to make popcorn balls for the annual Christmas party Final plans were made for a booth at the bazaar to be held at the Moose home, Nov. 10.

Mrs. Don Distl was the winner of the club prize Contests were won by Mrs Ralph Jesson and Mrs H A Solomon The next meeting will be a Christmas dinner at 6.30 p m at the home of Mrs. Schweitzer 104 Arthur avenue Members are to bring their own table service and a gift for an exchange

Voice of Broadway

NEWS! NEWS! NEWS!

President Truman's victory caused at least six Broadway angels to cancel plans for backing shows . . . Now that Ingrid Bergman has done "Joan Of Arc," she'd like to play Camille. (Those were Sarah Bernhardt's favorite roles, too) . . .

Most people don't think of Alan Ladd as a singer, but a deal for him to appear in England is on the fire, and part of his act will be a couple of vocal solos . . . Wasn't Lady Mendl an unpublicized victim of the recent wave of jewel thefts?

Ex-Senator Bob Reynolds should by this time have court permission to sell the one-third interest in $18,000 worth of furs left by Evalyn Walsh McLean to his six-year-old daughter. (Mrs. McLean's grandchild) . . . New entry in the Sonja Henie sweepstakes: Alfredo de la Vega, a handsome visitor to the U.S.

A New York travel agency is threatening to sue a famous actor-playboy for nonpayment of a $181 plane ticket bill—due since last March.

Ann Corio, the strip teaser, is having words with Bert Lahr and Jean Dalrymple because she didn't get program credit in their coast production of "Burlesque." And she was technical advisor on the strip routines, she avers.

Lili Damita is back from Paris and shopping for a Broadway vehicle . . . Joe Di Maggio searched for office space in a Brill Building (Broadway's song publishing center) a few days ago, but wouldn't say why he wanted it.

Musical comedy soubrette Barbara Shasley (of last year's "Ballet Ballads" will waltz down the aisle with Editor Chris Seibel on New Year's Day.

The live audience at the Bijou these nights is applauding at the end of "The Red Shoes" ballet as if the dancers were flesh and blood. When ballerina Moira Shearer appears to take her celluloid bow, she is greeted with the approval of real as well as unreal patrons.

Thyra Samter Winslow bought herself a new red fox greatcoat chiefly so she could crash no-dogs-allowed bistros with her red Pomeranian. She tucks him into the folds of her sumptuous sleeves, and he matches exactly!

Nancy "Slim" Hawks has been duetting with Director Bretaigne Windust in the Gotham smart spots . . . George Jessel has a 20th Century Fox job for Nicky Blair, but Nicky avers he doesn't want to leave Broadway and his Carnival ballroom

Feature editors might get a good yarn from Arthur "Curly" Green, the piano tinkler at the old Knick Music Hall. "Curly" is the lad who took down on paper the notes of George M. Cohan's "Over There" as Cohan sang the tune. (Cohan couldn't write a note of music).

This will be changed to Jones, of course: Hal Wallis has just hired an actress named Maria Stephanie Yvette Von Cories Zu Gietzen . . . Jennifer Jones is reported worrying about extra pounds.

Cornel Wilde and wife Patricia Knight will remain in Italy until the studio calls him back for a picture. Nothing is set at the moment.

Broadwayites are wondering if the long-standing feud between Sophie Tucker and Belle Baker will break out again when the two singers open in rival clubs across the street from each other. Their original difficulties started years ago over the services of a special material writer, Jack Yellin.

Millenium note: Arnold Jr's restaurant has inaugurated a "television dinner package" which is delivered to the home of patrons who can't tear themselves away from the video screen!

There's a nice touch of realism in "Apartment For Peggy"—an unusual one for Hollywood, too. Jeanne Crain appears throughout the film with a cute little space between her two front teeth. As a rule, the glamour moguls insist on porcelain sup-covers to cloak the slightest irregularity.

The George Brittons (he's been featured in many Rialto musicals, she was songstress Kay Connors) are lullabying a baby boy . . . Too many cocktails too often have cost a potential screen bombshell her nice lucrative movie contract.

Jane Russell is huddling again with a battery of script writers. (Lucky script writers!) They're whipping up a new night club act for a planned cross-country tour of major night clubs.

Intimates believe Fay Bainter and her estranged mate may make a happy announcement soon.

Henny Youngman is nursing a badly sprained back, result of wrestling lessons. He's been boning up—no pun intended— for his screen portrayal of a madcap wrestler.

HOROSCOPE

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Wednesday, November 10

ALTHOUGH there may be stubborn obstacles, delays, disappointments or other difficulties to encounter by firm and shrewdly organized plans or resistance, well-laid projects should gain spectacularly or could branch out into unforeseen directions. Seeming failure or loss may be turned to good account by a radical change of plans, or techniques, with originality and innovation benefited by routine and substantial tactics. Business, finances, inventions or discoveries, as well as personal interests, should thrive by a fresh approach. Novelty may prove dynamic.

IT IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Those whose birthday it is, may anticipate a period of experimentation, fresh adventures or revamping of plans and operations. Then a static, delayed, obstructed or impractical condition seems to threaten the wished-for progress. Launching a new procedure by bold ideas, fresh ways and means, could benefit by sound study, keen analysis, or through shrewd or long-range revamping. Business, employment, finances and purely personal interests could benefit by a move in the direction of novelty, or ingenuity. Originality and innovation in thinking as well as tactics are urged.

A child born on this day while possessing an urge to strange, fresh or novel ideas and experimental notions or "hunches" will also have the determination, shrewdness and diligence to put them over. A dramatic and eventful life should crown its efforts.

Is Yours A Forgotten Child?

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE

(AP Newsfeatures)

"The Forgotten Years of Childhood."

That's what Clara Lambert, Director of Teacher Education at the Play Schools Association, calls the ages between 6 and 12.

These are the forgotten years, she explains, "because Johnny and Mary have lost the charm of babyhood and have not yet acquired the bloom of the 'teenager.' Children of this age are not so lovable as they were at three, nor so exciting as they are in adolescence."

The inner world of the 6-to-12-years-old is hard to get at. And because they are elusive years and at times baffling, she has just written a 32-page illustrated phamphlet, "Understanding Your Child—Ages 6 to 12." issued by the Public Affairs Committee Inc., of New York.

For dealing with children in this difficult phase of growth, Mrs. Lambert offers the following suggestions to be used, not as an infallible guide for on-the-spot emergenies, but for long-term guidance in helping your child to develop fully.

1. Know what to expect beforehand. Be prepared for questions about sex, "shockers," talls tales, lies, or stealing.

"Shockers are best handled with humor and light touch, and a simple direct, honest answer without a display of shame, confusion, or anger.

When a child lies, he may be afraid of punishment or of losing your love. Relax your demands, make him feel sure of your love and understanding, no matter what happens.

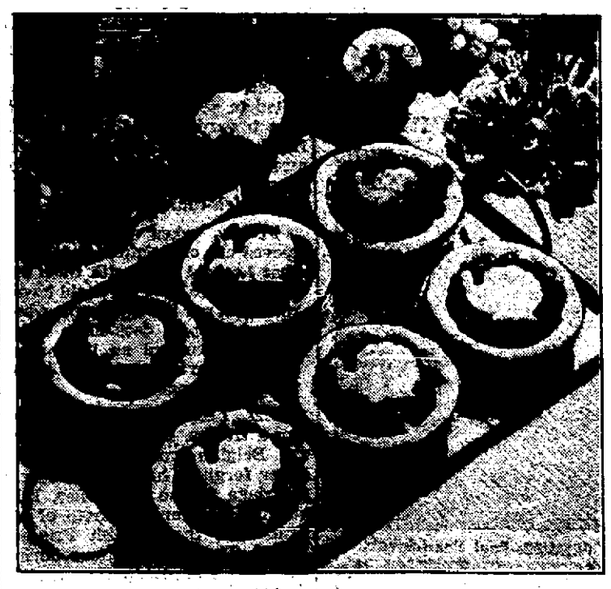
Stealing is usually brought about because there is not enough adventure in your child's life. Give him more things to do and more attention.

2. Keep talking things over together. Reading stories is one way to have little "talk fests" which lead to understanding.

3. Encourage dramatic play, even though it is often a noisy, dirty, highly emotional activity, for it is through play that children work out their own problems.

4. Share experiences with your child. Experiences shared with you provide richer play material than a closetful of toys.

5. Don't make too many rules and regulations. Your children want rules, laws, and regulations, but they like the "rubber band" type which can be stretched a little but not broken. You must know how to compromise gracefully, be firm without rancor, be fair, and even look the other way sometimes to sidestep an unimportant issue.



THANKSGIVING marks the beginning of the season for winter gayety. Home dinner parties and luncheons take on a festive air, with attractive table decorations and party recipes dished up. A filling, delicious dessert goes far in stretching the food budget, at the same time providing the energy so needed in the diet when the weather's nippy.

Good are these little cranberry pies, and quick to make, if you use a prepared pie crust mix. Try them for Thanksgiving entertaining, and through the holiday season. They are especially fine to round off a cold turkey supper.

HOLIDAY CRANBERRY PIES

8 individual pie shells
8 pastry "turkeys"
1 quart cranberries
2 cugs sugar
1 cup water
½ lb. seedless white grapes
2 tart apples, diced
1 cup drained, grated pineapple
½ cup broken walnut meats

Make and bake 8 individual pie shells (4½ inches in diameter) and 8 pastry "turkeys" cut out with turkey cookie cutter, using prepared pie crust mix. Wash and pick over cranberries. Combine cranberries, sugar and water in saucepan; bring to boil. Simmer 10 to 15 minutes or until cranberries burst. Cool, Halve grapes; add with apples, pineapple and walnut meats. Chill, Fill pie shells; top with pastry "turkeys."

Apple growers in the State of Washington, who produce a third of the nation's apples, recommend that the fruit be stored in the refrigerator until ready for use. Cool temperatures help to keep apples crisp and flavorful.

Beauty Mask Is Insurance

By BETTY CLARKE

(AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor)

A beauty mask will give you a quick pick-up when you develop that "all-gone" feeling.

You can whip up a home-made mask in a jiffy. All that's required for this refresher is an egg white beaten to a lovely frothiness and icy good quality witch hazel. Pat the egg white on the face and neck with an upward and outward motion. Relax while the mask sets. When the egg white has dried, remove with tepid water. Dip cotton into the chilled witch hazel and gently pat it over the entire skin surface. This routine should make your skin glow.

This is a good beauty treatment for any time of day. While most people prefer to do it just before going to bed, don't hesitate to give yourself this jiffy mask first thing in the morning.

If you're a sleepyhead, you may have to rise a half-hour earlier for your meringue mask. But don't let that worry you—by the time you have applied the mask, dunked yourself in a nice bubble bath and given yourself a friction rub with a turkish towel, you'll be all set for the day.

Keep in mind, however, that no beauty treatment will accomplish good results if you do not get proper rest. An extra dose of relaxation now and then will help keep you young and pretty.

Army Lifts Ban On Slacks

BERLIN — The new look in blockaded Berlin this winter will be designed not for chic but for warmth. Many female legs will be hidden entirely—by slacks.

Recognising the approach of winter for this coal-short city, the U. S. Army through its daily bulletin has formally announced lifting its ban on the wearing of slacks by female civilian employes, in mess halls as well as offices.

Even the American Harnack House club is permitting females in slacks during the noon meal period.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. Adv.

Put Your Best Foot Forward When Applying For Position

WHEN you set out to land your first job, make your appearance and personality speak for you. Face your interviewer with the confidence that your appearance and voice indicate your true value on the job.

Good grooming, well-modulated speech, and taste in clothes mark you as an employe of which the company can be proud. Your outward appearance, says Charm, mirrors the inner character and personality traits which assure employers of your ability and of your continuing success on the job. To your prospective employer, clear eyes, well-cared-for hands, a fresh, sweet look speak eloquently of your alertness, dependability, good judgment, attention to details and assurance.

Work out a resume of your qualifications on paper. Name the job for which you aim; list the details of your educational background for their essential value on the job.

Don't let the word "experience" throw you for a loss. Part time work, summer jobs, volunteer activities in club or community projects, work on the editorial, advertising or production staff of your school newspaper or yearbook is considered salable "experience" for "first-job" hunters. In your resume, list your marketable skills, such as shorthand, typing, filing, cooking or photography. If you've traveling or have any special vocabulary, scientific, merchandising or other, be sure to mention it.

A short letter directed to the employment director, requesting an interview and enclosing your resume, complete with references, will help prepare a welcome for you.

Vocational Classes To Open Nov. 15

Courses Announced At Senior High

Beginning Nov 15, night classes in vocational training will be held at the Senior high school under the supervision of V. H. Oberlander, vocational guidance director.

Classes will cost $4 for each 18 hours of instruction. They will include theory and practice in machine shop work, operation of lathes, shaper, milling machines, planer, grinders and other such mechanical apparatus; theory and practice in automobile mechanics and theory and practice in electrical work.

In the automotive classes, actual repair work on live jobs and mock-ups of motors, automobile wiring and fuel system repairs will be included in the course Motor repair, testing, starter work and fundamentals of house wiring will be a part of the electrical studies.

CLASSES TO SUIT

Classes will be held two nights each week for two hours each night for a period of 12 weeks with the nights to be arranged to suit the classes

Shop, electrical and automotive equipment at the vocational department at the school is among the finest in the state. A thorough and detailed course can be given in any of the above subjects, Oberlander said.

Persons interested in enrolling in these classes can call 4657-6 between 8:30 a. m and 3:00 p. m, Monday through Friday, or contact Oberlander at the school.

Parking Meter Revenue Drops

Daily parking meter income dropped in October to $164 as compared with $173 in September, George Caton, parking meter collector reported today.

During 23 collection days in October, $3,942 was collected, $1 084 less than during a 29-day period in September.

Caton said the total revenue collected during the first 10 months of the year totaled $39,881.

Leopold III—The King Who Isn't

Monarch In Exile Poses Problem For Belgium

REGENT—Prince Charles.

CONSORT—Former Liliane Baels.

PpremIER—Paul Henri-Spaak.

(By Central Press)

BRUSSELS, Belgium — Under Belgium's placid post-war recovery there seethes a rumbling political volcano in the possible return of King Leopold III to the throne in Brussels

At the moment, Leopold the Unlucky and his family are in exile; a position to which they have been relegated since the Allies liberated them from German custody in May, 1945, after taking over a once-Nazi-held villa near Salzburg, Austria.

Yet, King Leopold still maintains nominal possession of his crown although he has not worn it since he left his homeland with his German captors in 1940 Instead on the throne in Brussels, today sits the king's brother, tall grave-faced Prince Regent Charles.

Talk to any Belgian today and you can elicit an immediate argument on the subject of whether Prince Charles should step down to permit either King Leopold or Leopold's son, Prince Baudouin, to ascend to the monarchy.

The majority of Belgians appear to favor leaving Leopold in exile, yet they also are strong believers in maintaining their present form of government which calls for a constitutional monarchy.

The complications and ramifications of the question are many. Catholic and Liberal party members are sponsoring the return of the king, but the Socialists and the Communists are strongly opposed to Leopold's return

Eventually, the issue may be decided by a plebiscite But even on this issue there is a strong division of opinion.

Just recently Paul Henri-Spaak, premier of Belgium declared that the Socialist standpoint on the return of King Leopold remains firm and unchanged.

★

"For us," declared the premier "the law of 1945 which declared Leopold unfit to reign still is law Only Parliament can declare whether or not this decision should be reversed

"A plebiscite can not change the situation because the monarchy is provided for in the constitution, and can not be made dependent upon a plebiscite Therefore, we will never approve the means of a plebiscite to determine whether or not King Leopold will return"

The issue of King Leopold's return, however, continues to be a burning question that first flared to the foreground during the last days of the war.

IN EXILE—Crown Prince Baudouin and his father, King Leopold III.

Previous to the Nazi invasion of the lowlands, King Leopold went to Berchtesgaden to talk with German Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler The action displeased his people Also, prior to the war he surrounded himself with many persons strongly suspected of being pro-Nazi.

When the Germans captured Brussels, King Leopold did not flee as did Queen Wilhemina of Holland who carried on her government from England.

Leopold stayed, saying it was his duty to remain with his troops, despite the urgings of his ministers that he flee to England.

The king's opponents point out that Leopold failed to help, in any manner, the resistance movement that worked underground to defeat Hitler.

Also, they maintain that he failed to show any negative feelings toward the Germans as did the late King Christian of Denmark. Instead, he frequently appeared to be "friendly" with many high-ranking Nazis.

Finally, when the Germans moved out of Belgium, it is said that Leopold went with them at his own free will. He could have returned, say his opponents, who charge Leopold decided to wait until he received an invitation from his government. That invitation never came.

King Leopold's foes consider him a traitor. Particularly severe are Belgian women. They have never forgiven him for his secret marriage to the commoner, Liliane Beals, after the death of his first wife, the Swedish Princess Astrid. The king's actions during the war and occupation merely deepened their enmity.

★

In place of the invitation to Leopold, the government asked his brother, Prince Charles, to serve as regent. The prince accepted the job in 1944, and since then his popularity has grown.

Prince Charles remains out of the public eye. He prefers to have other members of the royal family appear at functions representing the crown. He maintains a dilligent working schedule and is known to be a hard worker, although he is not one to be called "colorful."

There is still a third factor in the question of the Belgian monarchy. That factor is Crown Prince Baudouin, a scholarly youth who recently reached his 18th birthday.

★

Most Belgians have forgotten what the prince even looks like. He was but a 10-year-old child when war broke out, and since peace, he has remained with his father in exile. Yet, he has become an issue in the monarchy only in that, at the age of 18, he can now take his seat, like all royal princes, in the Belgium Senate

Should the prince do so, however, he would have to announce his allegiance to his uncle, the prince regent. Such a step could hardly be tolerated by his father, the exiled king.
